

Record takings for Lifeboat Week 2011

A RECORD-breaking amount of £44,000 was taken during Lyme Regis Lifeboat Week in July, organisers have announced.

Chairman of the Lyme Regis and Charmouth RNLI Guild, Rob Michael, said he was "staggered" by the huge total. Although expenses have not been taken from this yet, the final profit, which last year stood at about £20,500, is expected to be more than ever before.

By Francesca Evans

The £44,000 takings included almost £9,000 raised by the RNLI lifeguards, who were asking people to sign up for regular donations to the charity, the first year of which will be credited to the Lyme Regis lifeboat crew. A further £3,000 was donated by Red Bull, which hosted its spectacular Harbour Reach wakeboarding event in Lyme during the busy week of events.

The town was packed throughout the week, which also included performances from the Red Arrows, RAF Falcons Parachute Display Team and the Royal Navy Black Cats Helicopters.

Busy week

Mr Michael said: "I am extremely pleased with this year's takings and it is all down to the hard work everyone put in. It was an amazingly busy week and we were really lucky with the weather. It just couldn't have been better.

"There were big crowds and I think it helped us that all the big events were held on different days. This is undoubtedly the best result ever."

Mr Michael paid specific tribute to David Gallier, who has been organising the performances from the military display groups, including the Red Arrows, for several years and has now stepped down.

He added: "David has been instrumental in putting on the big show events for us for eight or nine years. Now he is finally having some time off. It is a vital thing to do and we are all very grateful for his long and very dedicated service to the guild."

Mr Michael said he hoped a replacement for Mr Gallier could be found from within the guild committee and that events such as the Red Arrows displays would still continue in the future.

ARTIST Chelsea Davine lives in Barcelona but returns to Lyme Regis, where she grew up and her parents still live, about once a month.

She studied art at college in London and took it up again full time after her two children were old enough to go to school. Chelsea is now known for her unique style using poured paint and materials such as gold leaf on unusual bases, including concrete, steel and copper.

Her latest project is The Shed Photography, an innovative platform for Lyme-based artists to show their work to a wider audience through the website and group exhibitions. The first Shed exhibition, "Looking Out, Looking In" is currently open at the Lister community rooms at the Marine Parade shelters as part of Lyme Regis ArtsFest.

■ WHY did you decided to set up The Shed Photography?

It was basically because I noticed all the hidden talent in Lyme Regis after last year's ArtsFest. In my open studio other artists would be keen to tell me about their own work as well as talk about mine. I think speaking to another artist made them feel relaxed and comfortable to talk about their own work.

The Shed Photography is a great place to showcase the work of amateur photographers and artists online to a wider audience across the world, but with its roots firmly in Lyme Regis. Art work can be bought online as aluminium prints, meaning they can be hung in the garden because they're waterproof.

■ WHAT do you enjoy about taking part in ArtsFest?

I feel bad for the organisers because it is such a difficult task to put together but they do such an amazing job. It's a wonderful event to get so many people together. There is such a breadth of creativity. As an artist, it can be boring looking at the same things all the time but there is such a broad range in ArtsFest. It allows creative people to shine, to show what they do and what they're interested in.

■ WHAT is the inspiration for your work?

I work at the Boat Building Academy as artist in residence and I love looking at all the boats in for restoration, the peeling paint and rusty old parts. I'm inspired by how the passing of time and weather changes things. Even inanimate objects, like a stone, you can see how the elements have changed it. My photo of the Cobb steps shows where people have walked on them for thousands of years, and that really fascinates me.

■ HOW did you come to live in Barcelona?

I wanted to learn a new language and a new culture. I find the architecture there really inspiring and it seemed like a good place to live for a while, and I haven't left since. I have lived there for 12 years, but I get the best of both worlds by coming back to Lyme Regis. I get the city buzz and the community life, which really helps to make me feel grounded.

■ WHAT do you think of the new Marine Parade shelters as an exhibition space?

They have great potential and it will be great to see how different people respond to the space, how it evolves and changes. We wanted the exhibition to look professional and kept the view of the gardens and the sea in mind, so you can still see through the glass. We wanted to show people the opportunity of a space like this and bring them a professional exhibition, which you might expect to see in London.

■ WHERE is your ideal holiday destination?

When I was a child I wanted to go to places starting with each letter of the alphabet. I've been to Afghanistan for A and Zanzibar for Z but not many of the letters in between. So I would like to go to all the other places sometime in my life.

■ WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I would like to build a world renowned international art gallery in Lyme Regis. That is my dream, to build a St Ives here. And I would go to some of the places starting with different letters of the alphabet!

Councillors agree on Hub funding for second time

By Francesca Evans

TOWN councillors have again decided to offer The Hub youth club in Lyme Regis £20,000 over the next two financial years, after their previous decision was ruled out as some members failed to declare prejudicial interests.

Before the May elections, previous councillors agreed to give £10,000 revenue to The Hub, as well as a £50,000 donation for work on the building's roof. After the elections it was requested that the £10,000 be extended to a yearly donation until 2014.

The decision to offer this funding under a Service Level Agreement with Lyme Regis Development Trust, owners of The Hub, was first made in July, proposed by Councillor Mark Gage and seconded by Councillor Lucy Campbell, who both later declared prejudicial interests because of their involvement with the youth club and development trust, and suggested that the agreement be re-proposed at a later date.

At last week's Strategy and Policy Committee meeting, Councillor Gage made a statement before leaving the room for the decision to be made. He said that The Hub was also seeking funding elsewhere and did not want to be a "financial burden" on the council. He also pointed out that council had a history of supporting local organisations, including the Woodmead Halls, Lyme Regis Football Club and the Marine Theatre.

Speaking in response to a previous comment that if The Hub used more volunteers its costs would be decreased, Councillor Lorna Jenkin said she had looked into this and found it would be "unrealistic" to ask volunteers to have the qualifications and checks needed to work with children. She then too left the room because of an interest, along with Councillors Terry O'Grady and Anita Williams. Councillor Campbell was not present at the meeting.

The Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, said: "I went back to the town clerk to check if this money was still safe and it is. This is obviously something that the electorate want by the way that they voted, and it's money that we can afford."

Speaking about the councillors who had to declare interests, she added: "I'm concerned that people are going to withdraw from local groups because it makes them so limited on this council."

Councillor Owen Lovell questioned whether they would be giving The Hub £10,000 for six months instead of 12 this year, as funding would go through at the beginning of each financial year in April, but the club did not open until this October.

The town clerk, Mike Lewis, clarified that this was not the case, as a lot of work had already been carried out at The Hub funded by the development trust.

The Service Level Agreement, including the further £20,000 funding, was proposed by Councillor Daryl Turner and seconded by Councillor Chris Clipson. Other councillors in favour were Rikey Austin, Barbara Austin, Owen Lovell, George Symonds and Sally Holman, with Councillor Michaela Ellis voting against.

Well known fossil hunter dies on cliffs

WELL known fossil hunter, Dr Colin Dawes, from Lyme Regis, died of a suspected heart attack on the coastal path on Thursday.

He was metal detecting below Axe Cliff Golf Club near Axmouth when he is thought to have suffered a heart attack. Medics declared him dead at the scene and a team from Beer Coastguards were sent to recover his body, which they said was in a very difficult position to reach.

Dr Dawes, 67, ran popular fossil walks from the town and had written several books and released a DVD about palaeontology, ornithology and marine biology in the local area.

Marine Theatre reports profit of over £10,000

THE Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis has reported a profit of £10,536 between April and July 2011, which is £9,365 more than budget.

The theatre's performance against its budget was considered by town councillors at last week's Strategy and Policy Committee meeting.

The total production income was £15,600 more than budget, but councillors pointed out that without their £32,000 funding, the theatre would have made a trading loss of £22,000.

Councillor Daryl Turner also complained that there was "nothing being put in the bucket" for the maintenance of the fabric of the building, which the council had said should be a priority.

It was decided that any queries about the theatre's finances should be raised at the next meeting of Lyme Arts Community Trust, which runs the theatre.

Live 'n' Deadly action on the beach

TELEVISION crews took over Lyme Regis beach last week for the filming of CBBC show "Live 'n' Deadly".

The programme was rehearsed on Friday afternoon and went live on Saturday morning, with the highlight being presenter Steve Backshall winched from the sea into the coastguard helicopter and back down again into the lifeboat.

Lifeboat crew members Tim Edwards, Grace Wadsworth and Ritchie Durrant briefly featured on the show, as well as some local children in the audience.

The show also featured Steve and co-presenter Naomi Wilkinson looking for fossils, a range of "deadly" wildlife, interviews with representatives from the RNLI and coastguards, sand art and special guest Dee Caffari, who has sailed around the world single-handedly twice.

District Civic Day held in Lyme

■ SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Councillor Summers presents a montage of RNLI photos to deputy launching authority Phil Ball watched by lifeboat crew members

CHAIRMAN of West Dorset District Council, Councillor Gillian Summers, brought a party of about 20 to Lyme Regis on Thursday for her Civic Day.

The group of mayors and council leaders from across the district, including WDDC leader Robert Gould and Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, enjoyed a tour of Lister Gardens followed by a visit to the lifeboat station on the Cobb. The civic party watched the lifeboat be launched into the harbour, with Lyme Regis town councillor and lifeboat crew member Mark Gage driving the tractor. Councillor Summers then made a special presentation of a montage of photos to deputy launching authority Phil Ball. The photos were taken of a lifeboat in the Black Sea, where Councillor Summers' great-grandfather was sent to set up a lifeboat service.

The group then had lunch at the Bay Hotel and were given a talk about the district council's coastal protection works in Lyme Regis, followed by afternoon tea at Lyme Regis Sailing Club.

Council makes plans to ease town centre traffic congestion

By Francesca Evans

TOWN councillors have put forward proposals to deal with the ongoing traffic management problems in Lyme Regis.

At last week's Planning and Highways Committee, members discussed the traffic problems in Church Street and Broad Street over the summer months. The subject was raised by two letters sent to the council by local residents Nigel Fortnam and Glenn Ford.

Mr Fortnam, who was involved in an incident over the summer when he unknowingly hit a pedestrian with his wing mirror while trying to pass other cars at the narrowest point of Church Street, said vehicles "ignore or simply do not see the 'Keep Clear' markings" and requested the council consider having yellow hatching painted on the road instead. Mr Ford, a Church Street resident, also expressed "deep concern" about the traffic problems and reminded councillors that local trader Pete Atkinson had been knocked unconscious by a wing mirror, as reported in the View From Lyme Regis, earlier this year.

At the meeting, Councillor Chris Clipson agreed that yellow hatching was needed to keep vehicles off "pinch points". Councillor Lorna Jenkin pointed out that the "Keep Clear" markings were originally painted because hatching takes much longer to go through council because of consultation processes. She said the "Keep Clear" marks were handled by completely different people, as they were only advisory not mandatory like hatching.

Councillor Owen Lovell said: "Before you jump in and make this request, we need to look at other things like having traffic directed one way from east to west and so on."

Chairman of the committee, Councillor Anita Williams agreed, adding: "The bigger picture of traffic does have to be looked at properly."

She suggested the council look at seasonal traffic measures, because the problems were so much worse during the summer. Councillor Williams also said that they would not be able to get hatching quickly enough to solve the problem.

"There are a lot of possibilities and I doubt any of them will be popular with everyone but that's just something we will have to take on the chin," she added.

It was decided that the committee put a four-part proposal forward for the full council to consider.

The four parts were as follows:

1) Request that the current markings, including the "Keep Clear" markings, from the London Inn to the traffic lights in Church Street are re-painted.

2) Arrange a meeting with county councillor Colonel Geoffrey Brierley and relevant highways officers and engineers to discuss traffic management in Lyme Regis.

3) To set up a working group to work on this and move forward with the county council

4) At budget time, to set aside a sum of money to encourage Dorset County Council to work on traffic management in Lyme Regis.

TOWN COUNCIL NEWS IN BRIEF

■ LYME Regis Town Council is looking into providing a CCTV system for the new Marine Parade shelters.

The town clerk reported at last week's Strategy and Policy Committee that he had received three quotes for cameras and was expecting another one soon. He added that the council may have to draw up its own specification of what they want at the shelters, and that a surprising number of cameras may have to be used to cover all areas.

Councillor George Symonds pointed out that he had requested to be involved in this process as he had some expertise in CCTV from his own business, the Amusement Arcade. He said it would be beneficial to draw up a specification so the council could get like-for-like quotes.

It was suggested that Councillor Symonds work with the town clerk to draw up a specification for CCTV and come back to the council.

■ LYME Regis residents will be offered free early morning and late afternoon parking at Woodmead Car Park, councillors have decided.

The town's Strategy and Policy Committee have decided to give free parking from 8am to 10.30am and 4pm to 6pm all year round to encourage residents to shop locally.

Information will be sent out in October along with the winter parking permits, which allows free parking in Woodmead and Cabanya Car Park to local residents during the quieter months, and will come into effect after the winter permits have expired.

■ LYME Regis Gig Club has been granted permission to continue storing its gig and launch trailer on two parking spaces behind the Boat Building Academy at Monmouth Beach.

The club requested to continue using the spaces for another 12 months until July 31st 2012 but the town council has given permission up until March 31st 2012, when negotiations with West Dorset District Council over the responsibility of Monmouth Beach Car park will take place.

Councillor George Symonds asked if the club paid for this space and was told they did not.

■ LYME Regis Town Council has decided to serve formal notice on West Dorset District Council that it plans to take over responsibility of Monmouth Beach Car Park from April 1st 2012.

The decision was made on advice of a solicitor at last week's Strategy and Policy Committee to protect the town council's legal position. The town clerk, Mike Lewis, explained that this did not mean the town council would necessarily take over the car park, which is currently leased to the district council, but it would leave their options open for discussion in the future.

ArtsFest starts with hugely

By Francesca Evans

THE eighth Lyme Regis ArtsFest got off to a successful start at the weekend, with a huge range of exhibitions, workshops and open studios across the town.

The festival was launched at a party on Friday evening in the Town Mill Malthouse, where work from all participating artists has been displayed, and was officially opened by the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, who is also the festival director, on Saturday morning.

Following her opening speech in the Marine Parade shelters, the Mayor went on a tour of the town, stopping at the Shed Photography exhibition in the Lister Room, a joint exhibition in the Baptist Church, shop windows displaying art in Broad Street, the Malthouse and the Woodmead Halls, where Axminster Artisans were hosting a craft fair and children's art activities.

On Saturday evening, Chelsea Davine, creator of the Shed Photography - a platform for local artists to display their work to a wider audience - launched her new venture with a reception at the Lister Room exhibition.

The first day of the festival was a huge success, with artists exhibiting in the Baptists Church selling £1,400 of work and over 500 people visiting the Marine Parade shelters where ArtsFest information and activities were held.

Other events during the opening weekend included a Mass Drawing Extravaganza themed "Lyme Bay", with Woodroffe School art teacher Dot Wood, a Japanese fish rubbing workshop with local artist Christine Allison and a concert from the Bridgend Male Voice Choir at St Michael's Parish Church.

Events will continue throughout this week until Sunday, September 25th. Workshops will cover subjects from stained glass, hand felting and peg looming to typography and writing your own life story.

On Friday, September 23rd, the Marine Theatre will host an evening of poetry, sea shanties and more called "Wordfest!", featuring entries in the Rotary Club's poetry competition open to local primary school children.

Activities on Saturday, September 24th will start bright and early with a sunrise sketching and sizzling breakfast event at By The Bay restaurant on Marine Parade with Christine Allison. The annual Mary Anning Day will also be held on Saturday, with a whole programme of events scheduled at the museum and Marine Theatre.

Youth music group B Sharp will be holding a busking festival on Saturday, from 11am to 8pm. Musicians of all ages are invited to perform at selected spots around the town and a piano will be installed in the Marine Parade shelters for all to have a go on.

More details on all events can be found at www.lymeregisartsfest.co.uk or in the ArtsFest programme, available at many local outlets.

Great honour for retiring town crier

TOWN councillors gave huge praise to retiring town crier Phil Street as he was made the second ever Honorary Freeman of the Town of Lyme Regis on Wednesday evening.

Mr Street was accompanied by wife Dawn, daughter Amy, his parents, best friend Mike Higgs and his wife Sue at the extraordinary meeting of the town council, in which it was unanimously decided to make him an Honorary Freeman of the Town for his 18 years service as town crier.

The Mayor, in full civic dress and accompanied by macebearers Derek Hallett and Stuart King, proposed the honour be bestowed upon Mr Street, seconded by Councillor Barbara Austin.

Town clerk Mike Lewis said this was the "highest honour the town council had the privilege to bestow", marking Mr Street's "exceptional service to the community".

By Francesca Evans

He added that his loyalty as town crier had been "exemplary" and had been carried out with "enthusiasm and professionalism". Mr Lewis said that Mr Street should be especially commended for his fundraising and "active and inspirational" chairmanship of the Lyme Regis and St George's Twinning Association.

Councillors Austin and

Michaela Ellis both thanked Mr Street for his service during their time as Mayor of the town. Councillor Daryl Turner said the last person to receive the freedom of the town was former headteacher of the Woodroffe School, Major Thornton Pearn, adding: "He was remarkable and so are you."

Previous to this, town clerk and Alderman Albert

Lane was made a Freeman of the Borough of Lyme Regis before it was dissolved in the 1970s.

Councillor Terry O'Grady said: "Thank you on behalf of the whole community. We are not just losing a town crier but a major asset to our town."

After being presented with a sealed and illuminated scroll, Mr Street gave an emotional reply. He told councillors he had only found out about the honour that morning and said: "I have thought all day about something to say but just haven't been able to get my words together. Thank you, I'm lost for words."

He then handed the town clerk his staff, bell and town crier's badge.

Mr Street will move to France this month to take up a new job following his promotion at Augusta Westland Helicopters.

Councillors later discussed the best way to find a replacement town crier.

It was decided to advertise the position in the local press and to hold a full council meeting, during which candidates would be interviewed and asked to give a general cry written for them, as Mr Street had done when he took on the position following the retirement of Richard Fox.

Councillor Owen Lovell requested that, as well as the general cry, candidates be asked to write their own cry as it had become apparent over the years that Mr Street was very good at this.

Sailors battle wind and waves in national championships

THE Phantom Dinghy National Championships were hosted by Lyme Regis Sailing Club last weekend.

The 82 participants enjoyed a welcome curry evening on Thursday night, before battling strong winds and waves in a tough weekend of racing.

The championships included two races on the Friday and three on the Saturday, with events being called off on Sunday due to gale force winds.

Andy Couch from Rudyard Sailing Club came out on top. He has won the championship twice before in 2007 and in Lyme Regis again in 2006.

He described Lyme Bay as one of the best sailing areas, despite the "challenging" wind and rain.

Several Lyme Regis sailors also took part in the races, with Simon Heusen coming in 12th place overall.

Race officer Tim Parsons said: "It's been a very successful event. Shame the weather called off races on Sunday but it went very well. Thanks to Dan Jaffe for the loan of his committee boat 'Good Will'."

Long-standing governors step down at St Michael's

■ RETIRING governors Councillor Barbara Austin and Eileen Winterborne pictured with past and present St Michael's students, the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman and Eileen's husband Reg Winterborne following a presentation of gifts

LONG-standing governors of St Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis, Councillor Barbara Austin MBE and Eileen Winterborne, have stepped down after a combined 30 years of service.

A special party was held to mark the occasion at the school hall on Monday afternoon, attended by school staff, students, governors, representatives from Dorset County Council, former St Michael's headteacher Chris Tozer, the Reverend Jane Skinner and the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman.

The children, including former St Michael's pupils Robbie Fowler and Kelsey Ellis, who have just started at the Woodroffe School, thanked Councillor Austin and Mrs Winterborne for their service to the school.

They were then each presented with a bouquet of flowers, box of chocolates and collage of photos representing their involvement with the school.

Speeches were made by headteacher Annabelle Grose, Rick Baker of Dorset County Council, Mr Tozer, who spoke of Councillor Austin and Mrs Winterborne's appointment to the governors, and chairman of the governors Audrey Vivian.

Mrs Vivian described the retiring governors as "loyal and valuable colleagues", adding: "You will be missed a great deal and I hope you will always feel welcome here. You will be a hard act to follow and I would like to thank you both for your service to St Michael's."

Councillor Michaela Ellis will take Councillor Austin's place as council representative on the governors and Margaret McConkey will take Mrs Winterborne's place.

LINKS with new twin town Barfleur were strengthened this week when a group from the Normandy town visited Lyme Regis.

The Mayor of Barfleur, Jean De Ville, the deputy mayor, their wives and two members of the twinning committee arrived in Lyme Regis on Thursday.

They enjoyed dinner at the Millside Restaurant with their Lyme Regis friends in the evening and were given a tour of the town on Friday, including the new Marine Parade shelters.

A reception was also held in the Guildhall on Friday morning, when the Mayor of Barfleur presented the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, with an aerial view photo of the French fishing town.

Councillor Holman thanked the Mayor, adding: "We all had a picture of what Barfleur was like in our heads but now we can see in real life."

Children enjoy new pre-school

CHILDREN have been settling in quickly at the new Lyme Regis Pre-School, based at the Children's Centre at St Michael's Primary School.

The youngsters started full-time last Monday, with new pre-school leader Sheila Stewart, deputy leader Jessica Hawkins and assistant Georgie Williams, who is covering maternity leave for Dinah Norris, who will return next year.

St Michael's headteacher Annabelle Grose said: "All three are working with the whole school staff team to ensure that the foundations for future learning are nurtured within a positive and secure environment."

The sessions are open to over three year olds from 9am to 12noon five days a week. There are currently 18 children at the pre-school and more spaces available. To apply, visit the school office for more information.

Miss Grose added: "We would like to thank the Early Years and Child Care Team, and the steering group who have supported the setting up of this new provision to make sure that the appropriate policies and procedures are in place."

At a recent LymeForward meeting, chairman of the school governors, Audrey Vivian, said: "It's tremendous that we have got this started so quickly. We are very pleased and hope it goes from strength to strength."

"Thanks to our new head Annabelle for doing all this in her first year at the school."

Where can I park in Broad Street for a minute?

■ YES, I was in the wrong but... please can anyone tell me where I can park for a few minutes in Broad Street to purchase a single item from the Co-op, Tesco's, Boots, the bakers, etc. or obtain cash from one of the cash points?

Where in the middle of summer or any school holiday, or weekend for that matter, can I park with my 91 year old, almost blind father and disabled sister who has learning difficulties, while he gets his pension?

I am very reluctant in today's society to leave my sister unattended in a car park, providing there is a space. Neither am I happy to let my elderly father walk from a car park to the Post Office when the pavements are crowded with visitors, particularly when there is a queue for the bus outside of the Co-op. He can no longer identify faces or detect uneven ground. To fall at any age is embarrassing but to fall at his age could be fatal. It may seem easy to some to organise this in a different way but I do try my best to use my time to accommodate everyone.

One day I tried to park in Broad Street on three separate occasions to post a parcel. Eventually I gave up and drove to Axminster. Fortunately, I had enough time to be able to do this that day. At least Uplyme Post Office has adequate parking now.

I am far from perfect but I do feel I am not a bad member of the community and was upset on Tuesday to be informed that a traffic warden was producing a ticket for my car, after literally just walking into the Co-op. I believe this was totally unfair, as he must have been observing nearby to be able to produce a ticket so quickly. I did not purchase anything from the Co-op in my haste and apologise for this, but this is one of the main reasons I am sure people choose to shop elsewhere.

I protested to the traffic warden in a civil manner saying I was only two minutes to which the response was "too late". Even my children were given two warnings before they had a slapped wrist when they were young.

Life is far too hectic, even in our little town, and I understand why we have hundreds of people wanting to live here, but we have to sort out a system for the main street. Perhaps 20/30 minute zones could be introduced. The one and only disabled space outside of Boots should also be for a shorter period as visitors use this for three hours at a time. I am unaware of any local who needs to park in the main street for three hours. I wonder if my grandfather had similar problems with his horse and cart on market days in Broad Street.

If we want to keep Lyme Regis the beautiful place it is and encourage people to use our shops, preventing the town being full of empty premises, then something has to be done very soon.

As for the window on the Guildhall, why not slope the base back at an angle as my father did to the bay windows on the opposite side of the road over 60 years ago?

Angela Manners,
Colway Lane, Lyme Regis

Concerns over Horn Bridge Parking

■ I HAVE genuine concerns that inconsiderate parking in the Horn Bridge and South Avenue area of Lyme Regis will result in the loss of the route as part of the town's local bus service.

Parking on both sides of the road not only causes terrible congestion but also creates danger for vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

Action is urgently required to alleviate the situation before there is an unfortunate accident and before my fears about the bus service are realised.

Surely the solution would be to paint double yellow lines on both sides of the road and designate authorised parking spaces with pay and display machines.

County councillors seem to have no qualms over spending thousands of pounds building a new headquarters in Dorchester, so what's the problem over sanctioning a very small amount in comparison to make life easier and safer for the people of Lyme?

The situation gives some credence to the Lyme feeling that, in the far west of the county, the ratepayers are again out of sight, out of mind.

John Hounsell,
Haye Lane, Lyme Regis

Only answer to seagulls: stop eating outside

■ ON a lovely, sunny Friday afternoon in August I was sitting on the sea wall below Bell Cliff when two Swedish couples appeared with hot pork rolls in paper bags.

They sat down beside me and the nearest lady opened her paper bag to reveal the top end of the roll, which smelled delicious, but just as she was about to take her first bite, there was a rush of wings and a huge seagull swooped between us, snatched her paper bag in its vicious yellow beak and dropped it on the pebbles right in front of us.

Immediately, about 30 or 40 gulls dived at our feet, screeching, fighting and gulping. Within seconds they had scooped the lot and flown off, leaving an empty, torn bag which the lady then picked up and put in her handbag.

It was embarrassing, and I apologised to her even though it was not my fault or the seagull's fault. It was just being a seagull. There are far too many of them but if they can't be culled, the only answer is to stop people eating outside.

Apologies to the Morris Men

■ Many thanks for the mention of the Uplyme Morris Men's appearance at the Town Mill on Monday in last week's View From Lyme Regis.

May I correct a misconception? I was not, and am not the leader of the side - that is Pete Morton, our squire. In fact, as the newest member of the side, I am a mere novice and need much guidance in each dance!

If anyone is interested in joining the side, they can find out more via our website,

www.uplymemorris.co.uk

As it says on the site: "Two left feet? Tone deaf? No friends? You could be a morris dancer! (Beard optional). We welcome new members, as dancers or musicians - or even both!"

New members would ensure that I am no longer the new boy, which would be a relief!

Thanks for charity golf day

■ CAN I say a huge thank you to Lyme Regis Golf Club and to everyone who took part in the Captain's Charity Golf Day last Saturday, which raised a huge £3500 for The Hub youth club.

A special thank you to club captain Ray Farrell for all his hard work, and to his family of volunteers.

Also thanks to vice captain Steve Phillips, all the staff, sponsors and people who donated raffle prizes.

A right royal knees-up!

ONE of my earliest memories as a child is watching the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in 1953. I was five at the time.

I can remember crowding into the front room of our next door neighbour, Stan Marshall, one of the first people in Anning Road to have a television, a small black and white screen in a big wooden box. I was mesmerised by the pomp and ceremony and ever since I have always enjoyed great ceremonial occasions.

This summer we got invited to a Buckingham Palace garden party and one of my ambitions is to get a seat at the Trooping of the Colour ceremony on Horesguards Parade.

I was, therefore, delighted to be asked by our Mayor, Sally Holman, if I would co-ordinate the Lyme celebrations to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in June of next year.

We called a public meeting at the Wood-mead Halls last week and the Mayor and I were delighted with the response.

Before the meeting Francesca asked me how many I thought would attend the meeting. "Six" was my reply.

But in the end we had over 40 present with around 20 local organisations represented and some great ideas.

And since the meeting a number of other local groups and individuals have been in touch to say they want to be involved.

I'm now in the process of putting together a draft programme of events for the Jubilee weekend (June 2nd-5th) to which we will add as the weeks progress.

We have called another public meeting at the Woodmead Halls for Monday, October 10th to which all organisations and others interested in being a part of the celebrations are invited (7.30 pm start).

In the meantime, anyone who has any ideas please feel free to contact me or Francesca.

It is our intention that the celebrations will be self-financing. It is not our intention to go cap-in-hand to the town council.

Not all councillors, or indeed residents, are royalists and we should respect their opinions.

By not asking the council to subsidise the events, we are not putting them on the spot. However, the Mayor is right behind our plans and I am sure there will be a strong civic input into the celebrations.

It is our intention that all sections of the community, young and old, will be part of what I hope will be a right royal knees-up.

A real lady in every sense

I FIRST met Barbara Waxman at a black tie dinner in Lyme.

With friends Nigel Fortnam and Cliff Powley, we decided to adjourn to the Volunteer Inn after a fairly boring night and Barbara asked if she could join us.

She had never been in an English pub before - and we persuaded her to try a pint of Guinness, another first for the petite and immaculately-dressed Barbara.

I'm not sure what the locals thought of us. Three of us done up in monkey suits and this slim, elegant woman supping Guinness!

Over dinner Barbara had told us a little about her life as a professional ballerina. I wanted to do a profile on her for the View and she said she would think about it.

Barbara became a familiar figure around town, always dressed as though she was on her way to a glitzy showbiz do. I never got to do that profile.

Many people have asked what has happened to Barbara because she has not been seen around town for a while.

Great friend Caroline Powley tells me that Barbara has been suffering from ill-health and memory loss for some time, dealing with both with great dignity.

She is now living at a home in Southampton to be nearer her brother.

Caroline said: "Please take this as a big thank-you to everyone in Lyme Regis who has offered her assistance in her confusion over the past few years. We will all miss our very elegant 'Lady of Lyme.'"

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

I HAVE little or no artistic talent. I did get a GCE in art but that was nearly 50 years ago and it wasn't without some embarrassment. I panicked and fainted in the exam and in the process knocked over my easel and that of a fellow student next to me. We were allowed to complete our paintings the following day. I passed, he didn't. And to this day he has never forgiven me. Such is life.

So I am probably one of the least qualified people to comment on the ArtsFest. But as all philistines say when it comes to commenting on art: "I know what I like."

On Saturday morning I did a tour of all the main exhibitions and I liked a lot of what I saw. But what impresses me most about this annual festival is the entrepreneurial spirit which has become a hallmark of its staging.

Although the event is organised by a small group of enthusiastic volunteers, led by current mayor Sally Holman, the Lyme Regis ArtsFest is now in its ninth year and is a highly professional showcase of Lyme's diverse and talented arts community.

As well as the usual exhibition venues in town, the ArtsFest made full use of the regenerated Marine Parade shelters with over 500 people visiting the central pavilion on Saturday.

And the multi-talented Chelsea Davine demonstrated the full marketing potential of the community rooms at the shelters by using the Lister Room to launch the innovative Shed Photography website which will provide an international platform for photographers and artists.

The ArtsFest is now well established as one of the annual festivals that defines Lyme as a town always keen to celebrate the diversity of community life.

It's a part of what makes this town so special.

Welcome to The Beauty Room, Beaminsters...

THE BEAUTY ROOM has been established in Beaminsters for ten years but has just been taken over by Caroline Street and Susie Roberts, who officially re-opened the business on 15th August. It is in a beautiful setting, part of The Old Vicarage, and nestled in a quiet, discreet part of Beaminsters with its own parking. They now offer a full range of beauty treatments and provide an advanced skin care clinic.

Susie is well known in the town and has owned Head Office hairdressers for the past fourteen years, and although she will be staying there, she will be running the business side of The Beauty Room.

Caroline is known as an advanced nurse practitioner at Bridport Medical Centre, and will also be working at the salon. She is an independent prescriber and specialises in anti ageing treatments, skin peels, and dermal fillers.

The Beauty Room is a Guinot Salon, offering Guinot facials and body treatments as well as a range of products to buy.

Manicures and pedicures are an essential at any beauty salon and it is no different here, the products used are all Jessica, well known to the stars, with the full range of generation gel nails that can last three weeks.

The salon also has tanning facilities, which uses Fantasy Tan, known to be much more natural looking than other products. In addition to this the full range of beauty treatments include electrolysis and Hollywood and Brazilian waxing.

Susie and Caroline bought the salon from Emily, who is a friend of theirs, and who built the business from nothing. Emily wanted a change of direction and both Susie and Caroline are honoured that she let them buy it.

The Beauty Room has three beauty therapists, Jody Mason, the senior therapist, and two junior therapists, Lauren Dry and Hannah Reeves.

Hannah and Lauren are fully qualified NVQ level three, having completed their Guinot training, and are up to date with the very latest techniques and products, including the two newest Guinot facials. Both Hannah and Lauren come highly recommended from Weymouth and Yeovil College respectively.

Lauren did exceptionally well and achieved the highest pass percentage in her training group, and specialises in manicures, pedicures, electrolysis (still the only 100% method of hair removal), and acrylic nails. Hannah specialises in massage and eyelash extensions, and has excellent massage techniques.

Many of you that have visited The Beauty Room before may well be familiar with Jody as she worked in the Salon previously before Susie and Caroline took over. She is the senior therapist, having also trained at Weymouth College, and specialises in all treatments that are offered at the salon, especially Guinot body treatments.

The final member of the team is the receptionist Kath Mainstone. Kath has worked in The Beauty Room for six years and has a wealth of experience. She's a familiar face and will be staying with The Beauty Room a couple of days a week.

There are still a few more finishing touches to be made to the salon, with the imminent arrival of diamond tip micro-dermabrasion, and hot stone massage, and a third treatment room, soon to be up and running. When everything is sorted there will be an official opening evening, so watch this space!

They are now open 6 days a week from Monday to Saturday, with late evenings on Thursday and Friday, so why not come down to The Beauty Room, meet the team, and see for yourself what they have to offer?

A love of Lyme's literary past

WITH Lyme Regis ArtsFest now underway (see pages 6 and 7), Anthea Simmons finishes her series of interviews by speaking to NATALIE MANIFOLD, of Literary Lyme fame. Natalie can be found most of this week at the Cobb Centre, where she is curating a show about Lyme's cinematic heritage. If she is not there, she'll be leading one of her literary or Mary Anning themed tours of the town.

■ WHAT is the history of your involvement in the arts?

I was totally obsessed by painting and sculpture as a child and basically did not read at all. I went to a Catholic school and encountered an English teacher who pretty much scared the hell out of me, but she got me reading. Did she spot some latent talent? No! I think she thought I was backward and awkward. Anyway, I read lots of 20th century classics and ended up doing A-level English alongside art and, just to prove that I could, chemistry.

I went to do a foundation course in art at Leamington but I left before completing the course for personal reasons, moved to the Staffordshire/Derbyshire border and applied to read English at Birmingham. I didn't want to do another art course. I felt I wasn't being taught anything, it was all woolly "express yourself" and "be free" stuff! I wanted to learn! I chose Birmingham because it was a lovely, green campus and because David Lodge was a lecturer there, and I liked his way of thinking.

One of my two dissertations was on adaptation of "The French Lieutenant's Woman" (TFLW) from novel to film script. Actually, my exposure to TFLW started much, much earlier. My mum was obsessed with the book and brought us kids down to Lyme for our holidays. As soon as TFLW came out on video, my mum bought it and we must have seen it every month for years, but it was only when I saw it on the shelves at university that I finally read it and fell in love with it myself. I just love that post-modern narrator, the intrusive author and the three endings (if you count the one in the middle). Incidentally, John Fowles' wife, Elizabeth, was the one who decided that it should be published with the alternative endings.

I moved to Dorset and realised that there was nothing in Lyme that really promoted Lyme's literary heritage, apart from some items in the museum. It just came to me that that was something I could do, so I found somewhere to live got a job in the Royal Lion and set about researching and identifying locations. My first walk was during the Fossil Festival, on Jane Austen, and I was absolutely terrified, not least because I was worried about the health and safety issues involved in taking people onto the Cobb! It was not financially successful and it was really the wrong audience, although there is a link between Jane and Mary Anning via Mary's father. Jane had him quote for the repair of a piece of furniture and found him too expensive!

I kept going though and developed the John Fowles walks, too, gaining access to his house and identifying all the locations from the novel. I now do up to four walks a week covering Jane Austen, John Fowles, TFLW, the Undercliff, Burton Bradstock to Cogden Beach, and Mary Anning, of course. I now also write for the Jane Austen Societies in America and the UK and have been doing some location work for Chicago Opera for their production of "Persuasion".

■ WHAT are your sources of inspiration?

The Undercliff. I don't know why, I've loved it ever since I was a kid. I feel threatened by it, too. I was working with Natural England recently and was walking along a path I use regularly. My friend was just ahead of me and had trodden on the same patch of ground but when I put my foot down, I fell down a crevasse! I was saved by my bra straps which got caught on something! Thank goodness I was not walking there alone, a chasm had opened up. That's what I mean about the threat, it's very real.

■ WHICH museum or gallery would you like to be locked up in for a weekend?

Tate Modern. I love the Turbine Room. I used to like going

■ NATALIE Manifold as Mary Anning

there on the late opening night, when it was only Londoners who visited rather than it being full of tourists. I liked that Louise Bourgeois spider.

I'm more of a museum person though and actually, I love Lyme Regis Museum. I am always spotting something new. Only the other day I suddenly noticed a photo of a pill box on the Cobb. I must have walked past that photo a hundred times or more!

■ HOW long have you been involved in ArtsFest and what would you like to see change/develop?

I got involved three years ago. Originally, I wanted to start a separate Literary Festival but quickly realised that I'd be applying for the same funding and it would effectively cannibalise the events. Better to operate under ArtsFest's banner.

The walks are now an established part of the week's programme. I'd love to see more open air theatre. I can think of a couple of magical locations to stage plays, a part of the Undercliff near Chimney Rock is just like a minute green amphitheatre. I think we could make more of these locations.

■ WHAT are you looking forward to at this year's ArtsFest?

I am really looking forward to the screening of the French Lieutenant's Woman at the cinema. I hope lots of people go!

Talk on cyclist's tough adventure

ROSE-MARIE FINLAY has been practicing Kinesiology for 20 years, she is also a Reiki Master and NLP Master Practitioner.

Rose-Marie uses a mix of disciplines to tailor treatment to a person's individual needs. Kinesiology allows us to discover, through gentle muscle testing, what these needs may be in order to move towards optimum health.

This may include a gentle release of congestion and toxins; stimulation of the immune system, with energy balancing, giving support to the digestive system with supplementation of certain nutrients or even clearing old patterns of behaviour.

Autumn is here and ahead the rigours of the cold season, the indulgences of Christmas and the short hours of daylight all test our sense of wellness. # For a beautiful new kitchen just change the doors

advertiser
announcement

www.dreamdoors.co.uk

Dream Doors Dorset is a Franchise of a National Company. It is owned and run by Andy & Shelley Stewart as a family business with reliable National branding & backing. Their expert staff will help plan your work, help you decide what materials to choose and explain what will happen in your kitchen.

Andy and Shelley Stewart, last year made it to the final three in the South West and South Wales regional heats for Franchisee of the Year Awards. Says Andy: "We're delighted to have made it this far. We know there are over 37,000 franchisees in the UK, so to be considered among the best is a real honour."

By replacing the doors, drawers, and if chosen new worktops, appliances and accessories such as plinths, cornice and pelmet a completely new kitchen can be achieved.

A kitchen facelift can save you up to 50% compared to a new kitchen and of course it's more environmentally friendly. But how does this work? A door makeover saves what is not broken such as the main structure of the kitchen including the carcasses and simply replaces the visible elements you want to change. In addition Dream Doors can also assist with minor re-designs and additional carcasses through to new kitchens. So flexibility and choice is the name of their game.

Why not transform your old or dated kitchen into something fresh and attractive. You can pick a colour, any colour, a style, any style and as the doors and carcasses are made to measure non-standard sizes are not a problem.

So whether you are looking for a contemporary, traditional, or a country kitchen it can all be carried out in only a couple of days and without the usual hassle, disruption and upheaval.

Why not visit the showroom to see what's possible and view the extensive range of styles and finishes, worktop choices and the range of NEFF appliances and Franke sink and taps.

Youth banjo champion to join Stompin' Dave for Dorchester gig

AN EXCITING late edition has been announced for the upcoming concert at Dorchester Art Centre this Friday - Young banjo whiz Edward Bennett will be joining Bridport's own Stompin' Dave to support The Whitetop Mountaineers from Virginia, USA.

Last weekend at The Cornish Bluegrass Festival Stompin' Dave invited the young banjoist who was performing with The Shindig Cloggers to join him on stage for an impromptu performance. This was a hit with the packed festival audience, who were enjoying a three day music festival which included an array of the best bluegrass acts from the UK and many visiting artists from the USA, including Steve Kaufman, three times winner of the American National Flatpicking Guitar Contest. Following this success Stompin' Dave has now invited Ed to join him for the Dorchester Arts Centre show.

Sixteen year old Edward from Penzance is one the most promising young musicians in the UK's old-time music scene, and was youth banjo champion at the prestigious Clifftop Festival, Virginia and the Morehead old-time festival in Kentucky last year. Edward also scooped third prize at the old-time banjo contest at the legendary Galax Fiddlers Convention.

At the time Edward had only been playing banjo for just two and a half years, learning by watching Youtube demonstrations and attended classes with Old Time guru Adam Hurt at the UK Sorefingers Music School. Subsequently Edward received a grant from The Cornish Bluegrass Association to continue his banjo studies. Edward won the UK's old-time music society's FOAOTMAD junior old-time banjo and fiddle contest in 2011.

This concert was a mouthwatering prospect, enough with The Whitetop Mountaineers headlining the concert. Martha and Jackson are also members of The Whitetop Mountain Band one of the most popular old time bands in Southwest Virginia.

Their shows feature old time country duet singing, up-tempo old instrumentals as well as high energy Appalachian dancing. Jackson and Martha have played concerts, festivals, workshops, and dances throughout the United States, UK, Ireland and Australia including Merlefest, Smithsonian Folklife Festival, and The National Folk Festival. Their shows feature old time country duet singing, up-tempo old time fiddle, clawhammer banjo, bluegrass mandolin and guitar instrumentals as well as high energy Appalachian dancing.

Tickets are selling well so be sure to get yours now to avoid disappointment to what promising to be a one off night of entertainment. Advance tickets for The Dorchester Arts Centre are £12, on the door £15. Available from Dorchester Arts Centre box office (01305) 266926 or online from www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

Pantomime Society looking for new members ahead of Red Riding Hood performance

LYME Regis Pantomime Society, one of the most enterprising and enthusiastic stage groups in the district, is appealing for more members to help it continue to promote the annual seasonal entertainment.

The first few auditions for its next pantomime "Red Riding Hood", to be staged in February, has already taken place and another will be held tonight (Wednesday) at St Michael's Parish Church Hall.

"Nothing has been finalised so far as casting is concerned," said secretary and wardrobe mistress Shirley Colley, "and there is still ample opportunity for others interested in taking a part or being involved off stage to come forward."

"It is common knowledge that the role of dame is in the spotlight, but there are other parts too, which offer both challenge and opportunity and the chance to be involved in a rewarding experience."

Chairman David Cozens added: "The pantomime society is always interested in featuring new talent to complement the skills and know-how of the seasoned performers whose love for this traditional form of stage production is unquestioned."

"They are a great team and, like all successful combinations, appreciate the need to feature fresh ideas and innovation whenever possible, tapping in on the undoubted talent of the area."

The pantomime society, reformed 25 years ago after a long period of closure, has staged some sparkling shows through the years, during which time many young performers trod the boards for the first time before progressing to other areas in the world of showbiz.

Lyme has a great tradition so far as the pantomime is concerned, and almost certainly has its local origins embedded in olden times when the "Lyme Mummers" caused great hilarity as they mimed at venues around the town.

Senior citizens at Lyme will remember the heady days of the local pantomime in the 1950s and early 1960s when the dedicated Frank "Flint" Stone, backed by the Royal British Legion branch, staged some vibrant shows to packed houses.

Mrs Colley, who took leading roles in those shows of yesteryear, has maintained her links with the society to this day and is one of the driving forces on a current committee striving to ensure the continuing development of the group.

Another very much to the fore is former dame Bill Street, who helped to revive the society with Shirley and others and who is now president.

"The march of time has seen changes in trends and tastes, with top class entertainment being available at the turn of a switch, but I believe panto remains the perfect vehicle to amuse and to be amused; to entertain and to be entertained," added Mr Cozens.

"It can be great fun for all concerned, and this is why the society hopes that its numbers will be augmented by others whose contributions will help it to continue to stage the best and most reasonably priced show in town."

Next week's auditions will be held in the Church Hall starting at 7.30pm.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

HARRY Graham (1874-1936) was a great poetical humorist. His masterpiece, published in 1899, was Ruthless Rhymes for Heartless Homes. His wickedly funny verses are the perfect antidote for those of us who weary of modern day political correctness. His comic verse is perfect for children, particularly for children of pensionable age who still hanker after the good old days of The Goons or Monty Python.

INDIFFERENCE

When Grandma fell off the boat,
And couldn't swim (and wouldn't float),
Matilda just stood by and smiled.
I almost could have slapped the child.

Graham was so supremely silly that if John McEnroe had ever met him he would have surely shouted, "You cannot be serious!"

THE PEST

I hate the knave whose private life
Is noted for its lack of morals,
Who starves his children, beats his wife,
Who fights and drinks and quarrels;
But oh! I view more sternly far
(How hostile grow my eyes of hazel!)
The rogue who suffers from catarrh -
The kind that's known as "nasal"!
With looks of loathing I behold
The wretched man who's got a cold!
Though criminals I can forgive,

And gladly suffer fools who bore me,
At peace with him I cannot live
Who scatters microbes o'er me!
He should be exiled, out of reach,
Condemned to dwell in isolation,
Who punctuates his ev'ry speech
With bouts of stertunation!
No blacker crime exists, I hold,
Than to transmit a heavy cold!

Then let me brand in harshest terms
The catiff who, in fashion stealthy,
Disseminates catarrhal germs
Among the sane and healthy;
Who, when he ought to be in bed,
Snorts like a pair of punctured bellows,
Until his fell complaint is spread
Broadcast among his fellows!
With passion fierce and uncontrolled
I loathe the man who's got a cold!

This verse is Graham's response to a remark made by Yeats that, "A poet's life must necessarily be troubled. If you could find a perfectly steady nature, you would find a silent one."

THE POET'S LIFE

How little does the public guess
The poet's fount of inspiration,
The dull despair, the storm and stress,
The pain and tribulation,
The doleful days, the sleepless nights,

That darken ev'ry line he writes!

The noblest bards have all required
A tragic source from which to borrow;
The choicest epics were inspired
By some domestic sorrow,
I wrote my masterpiece that morning
When both the parlourmaids gave warning,

When from a window in Whitehall
A flow'r-pot on my skull descended,
I penned those lines which nearly all
The critics labelled "splendid";
That pot impinging on my cranium
Inspired my "Ode to a Geranium."

I wrote my "Ballad of Blue Blood,"
So haunting, exquisite and tender,
The evening that my collar stud
Rolled underneath the fender.
Were finer couplets ever written
By any man less sorely smitten?

These rhymes and many more can be found in 'When Grandma Fell off the Boat - The Best of Harry Graham' published by Sheldrake Press.

AsOne Theatre finally open the door

AWARD winning AsOne Theatre finally brings 'She Opened the Door' (The Wife, the Mother, the Other Woman and the Ruined Maid) to The Marine Theatre Lyme Regis on Thursday, September 29th. Playwright Peter John Cooper cleverly interweaves the real and fictional women surrounding Thomas Hardy at the height of his fame, creating a dramatic, funny and poignant story whilst exploring a perennial theme - the affect of celebrity on relationships. Set in the garden of Hardy's Max Gate home, Thomas' possessive mother visits for a first time; the Other-Woman of the plot, arrives riding the new fangled bicycle; whilst a ruined house maid is desperate to play Tess. Add to this heady concoction a ghost or two; a controversial manuscript, plus Emma Hardy's tangled nerves, and you have a powder keg ready to blow!

Having premiered at the International Thomas Hardy Festival in August 2010 with a successful five county tour ending on a magical performance in the real setting of Hardy's Max Gate in August 2011, AsOne Theatre thought the company's most successful tour yet was put to bed.

AsOne's Jane McKell said: 'We thought it was over, however by popular demand this was not to be. The Marine Theatre had been unavailable during our original tour; but we are coming now! The premiere at Dorchester's Corn Exchange was amazing with a full house sign on the pavement outside with people from America, Japan and Europe enjoying our play about the real and fictional women surrounding Thomas Hardy. They loved it. Then our 'final' performance in the garden at Max Gate was packed, and with the feeling that Hardy would pop up at any time- a very special performance.'

AsOne promises an explosive evening of powerful performances with music by celebrated composer of film, TV and theatre, Roderick Skeaping; and set and costume design by the talented Annette Sumption.

Tickets for the performance cost £11 and are available from the Marine Theatre box office on 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com

Local comedians to join circuit pros at first Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café

COMEDY professionals and emerging new acts will be joined by local comedians at the first Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café night.

Bridport's own Gary Ball will perform one-liners as his alter ego "Barry Barking" and fellow local resident Paul Siebenthal will be sharing his tales of life in the countryside, fresh from completing London's renowned Amused Moose stand up course.

Joining them on the night will be 14-year-old Beaminster schoolboy Rex Fisher, who gives his own unique take on teenage life.

Experienced new acts, Sherborne's Jason Manly and Bournemouth's Mike Bilham, will complete the line up supporting the evening's headliner, high octane musical comedian Ashley Frieze. Fresh from the Edinburgh Comedy Festival Ashley will be sharing songs from his solo show, The Seven Deadly Sings.

Guiding the audience through the night's entertainment will be resident compere and another Bridport resident, Tom Glover.

Tom has performed more than 40 gigs around the UK, since starting out last October, and was a winner at the Swanage Comedy Festival open mic competition earlier this year.

The first Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café Night takes place on Friday, September 23rd - tickets are available from the box office 01308 424204, £5/£3 concessions.

HEADLINER | Ashley Frieze will be performing his brand of musical comedy

WIN TICKETS TO SEE BUDDY HOLLY – A LEGEND REBORN

The View from newspapers have teamed up with the promoters of the spectacular live concert show Buddy Holly – a Legend Reborn to give one lucky reader the chance of winning a pair of tickets to see the spectacular production at the Electric Palace in Bridport on Friday, October 21st. Special guests on the night will be The Fortt Brothers as The Everlys.

The famous Buddy Holly – A Legend Reborn show comes to town direct from appearing in London's O2. Starring Marc Robinson, the UK's number one Buddy, the spectacular live production brings to life classic hits such as Peggy Sue, That'll be the Day and Oh Boy.

Backed by a band reminiscent of the Crickets in their Fifties heyday, Buddy Holly – A Legend Reborn is an authentic slice of rock 'n' roll nostalgia that ensures Buddy's incredible legacy of unforgettable hit songs lives on.

Headlined by Stars in Their Eyes winner Marc Robinson, Buddy Holly – A Legend Reborn features Marc clutching a Fender Stratocaster, sporting a pair of heavy-rimmed glasses, and sounding exactly like Buddy in his heyday.

To win tickets to see the show, just answer this simple question:

Ritchie Valens, J.P "The Big Bopper" Richardson, Elvis Presley - which of these famous rock 'n' rollers was not killed in the plane crash that killed Buddy Holly?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and daytime phone number to: BH Comp., Lyme Media & Events Ltd, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB. Closing date for entries is Wednesday, October 12th

The winner will be selected at random. There is no cash alternative. Usual competition rules apply. Editor's decision is final. Winners will be informed by telephone, and tickets will be available to collect on the door on the night of the show in the name of the winner.

To buy tickets visit the Electric Palace Box Office (or call 01308 424901) or visit www.electricpalace.org.uk. Tickets cost £19.50.

THE HERITAGE RESTAURANT, CHICKERELL - A FINE DINING EXPERIENCE

"OUTSTANDING", "stunning" and "out of this world" are just some of the superlatives used to describe the food which is served at The Heritage Restaurant and Rooms in Chickerell near Weymouth. But don't be over-awed by this well established village restaurant-just because it earns such accolades doesn't mean it's unapproachable!

Unerring in their passion for quality, Anne and husband John Grove have owned The Heritage since August 2008. Here, in an attractive Purbeck stone building set in the heart of Chickerell village, they offer a friendly and value-for-money real "restaurant" experience. "In today's stressful, time-strapped environment," says John, "we believe we offer not just food and drink, but a relaxing and delicious dining experience. While there is definitely a time and place for the many more informal eateries, we believe that dining in a dedicated restaurant is a really pleasant thing to do! It makes more of an occasion of your get-together, whether just the two of you or in a larger party."

The food, which is predominantly local and seasonal, is freshly prepared from beginning to end including mouth-watering desserts. Everything is made at The Heritage using excellent quality West Country produce. The ambience is comfortable, tranquil and intimate. Exclusive enough for that special occasion, but relaxed enough for an impromptu meal.

Dishes range from a bowl of simply delicious roasted tomato soup with rosemary (picked freshly from the garden), through Sunday's top-quality roasted West Country topside of beef accompanied by the traditional trimmings to, an utterly decadent and special Chocolate Nougat Pavé, where even the nougat has been made in the kitchens of The Heritage, "...because I can't find a decent nutty nougat that isn't bright pink!" says Anne, who is also Head Chef.

A la carte menus are offered at both lunchtime and in the evening, with varying set menus such as the classic Sunday lunch. So while you could enjoy a fantastic-value three-course lunch for £16.25, you could also pop in and have just one course.

The Heritage Restaurant and Rooms also has six en suite rooms which provide comfortable accommodation and - and a safe option when you want to enjoy the extensive range of wines and spirits with your meal. The sumptuous breakfast the following morning is definitely worth getting up for and another good reason to stay over.

Food, accommodation, service... The Heritage offers an undeniably welcoming and personal year-round, all-encompassing venue, with its quaint exterior giving way to an interior with beams, slopes and exposed stone. Seating up to 70, it is ideal for smaller private parties, anniversaries, birthdays, weddings - even business meetings conducted in this tranquil setting could see improved results! Because of the very hands-on management style, events are tailor-made to suit the individual guest's requirements. With Christmas just around the corner, what better place to celebrate? The seasonal party lunch and dinner menus start on November 19th, from £19.75 per person, and continue to the end of January. The Christmas Day and Boxing Day luncheons are traditional favourites in the village, with guests booking from one year to the next.

The Heritage's location three miles west of Weymouth is perfect for visiting business people - especially if they are visiting the Granby Industrial Estate. Only a five-minute drive - a welcoming, personal atmosphere, and food to die for all on the spot.

The Heritage Restaurant and Rooms will sharpen your taste buds for a real dining experience! It is open for lunch Thursdays to Sundays, from 12noon (last orders 2pm) and for dinner every evening except Sundays, from 7pm (last orders 9pm).

Honda UK announce new general manager

HONDA (UK) is pleased to announce the appointment of Philip Crossman to the position of General Manager, Cars from the end of October.

Responsible for car sales performance reporting into Managing Director, Dave Hodgetts, the role will strengthen Honda's UK car operation as it prepares to launch the all-new Civic to its UK network next month.

At the same time, Janice Kennedy, Honda's head of cars sales, is retiring at the end of October after six years in the post helping to steer Honda's car business through this difficult period. She is to return to the Scottish Highlands after commuting to and from London for many years.

Commenting on his appointment, Philip Crossman said, "Honda (UK) and our dealers have a great future. The key is having a close working relationship, understanding the challenges of our dealer groups and individual businesses."

"With our Swindon plant back at full production and new Civic poised to hit the showrooms, the opportunity to grow our business and that of our dealers is right now."

Philip Crossman, 57, joined Honda in August 2000 as a regional manager and was made head of sales (cars) in February 2002 for the next four years until October 2006 when he took over as head of network development for Honda cars.

Following a restructure in April 2010 he took on the role of head of dealer development for cars, motorcycles, lawn and garden, energy, marine and ATV networks.

Angry motorists fight back over the country's 'Third World' roads

COUNCILS across the UK are shelling out every day to irate motorists.

The average compensation for vehicles damaged by potholes is £200 with 22,000 successful claims last year alone. And it's all taxpayers' money.

Shoddy road maintenance costs drivers six times more than it costs councils to patch up our roads.

Insurance isn't an option for many. Simon Douglas of AA Insurance explains, "Drivers are unwilling to claim as they risk losing their no-claims bonus. The cost of repair may be less than the rise in premium."

Worse still, the Government has told the Highways Agency to ignore any motorway potholes smaller than the size of a soup bowl from 2015. With rises in fuel duty and road tax it leaves motorists outraged at the news.

Chris Reagan of Coventry pays £445 road tax on his Audi A6 All-road.

"It is robbery," says Chris. "The roads around us are shameful. I use the M69 for my commute. If the motorways become as bad it would be awful."

Camilla Dyson from Sheffield bought an 18-month old VW Golf two years ago.

"I sold the car last week. I got next to nothing for it. It was wrecked. The roads in Sheffield are a disgrace," said Camilla.

At high-speed a small pothole can crack a driveshaft. Shock absorbers fracture easily. And a suspension coil spring can snap like a carrot.

Mail order company Carparts-Direct.co.uk supplies steering racks and driveshafts.

"Many customers ask for a detailed invoice to claim from their authority," says Martin Mosley of Carparts-Direct.

"Our steering racks and driveshafts are remanufactured items so the old part is returned to us when the job is done.

"Some are damaged so badly they are useless.

"In 25 years I have never known this level of destruction. It is unsafe."

Successive governments know voters won't put up with third world schools and hospitals. Third world roads could prove even more unpopular.

British Gas to power Future Car Challenge

B RITISH Gas is the official energy and electric vehicle (EV) charging partner for the annual RAC Future Car Challenge, the world's leading low-energy driving challenge which requires entrants to drive a 60-mile route from Brighton to London using the least amount of energy possible.

The event, which is run by the Royal Automobile Club and will take place on Saturday, November 5th is open to electric, hybrid, hydrogen and low-emission internal combustion engine cars and light-commercial vehicles.

In addition to providing charge for vehicles taking part in the challenge, British Gas is entering two electric cars driven by two of the UK's biggest electric car evangelists: Smooth FM's Mark Goodier and TV presenter and comedian, Robert Llewellyn, best known for playing Kryten in Red Dwarf.

Mark Goodier was the first person in Britain to own a Nissan Leaf and has been running it on solar energy after British Gas installed 12 solar panels on his home in May this year.

He has since cut both his petrol costs and his carbon footprint and, thanks to the feed-in tariff, a scheme which pays the owners of solar panels for all the renewable electricity they generate, Mark will receive around £1,200 a year.

In April 2011, British Gas announced its first solar-powered electric car partnership with Nissan. British Gas is helping to make electric vehicles more accessible to more people by making it simple, quick, easy and safe to run electric vehicles and hybrid cars through advice, the installation of charging points and dedicated tariffs.

Dean Keeling, Managing Director of British Gas Smart Homes, said: "The RAC Future Car Challenge is an exciting event for the world of low-emission driving and British Gas is delighted to be powering it, helping to make electric vehicles accessible to all.

"We want to make the process of running an electric car hassle-free by installing smart meters, supplying cheaper electricity through our new tariff and advising consumers on when to charge to reduce their carbon footprint."

British Gas is the preferred supplier of vehicle charging points for the Nissan Leaf, as well as for the new Zero Emissions range of Renault EVs, and Hitachi Capital's EV lease offering.

These preferred partnership deals mean British Gas is on track to be the largest supplier of car charging points in Britain's homes, supporting 70 per cent of the domestic market by 2012.

Experts predict that by 2020, electric vehicles could account for approximately ten percent of all cars sold in the UK. This equates to roughly 1.2 million UK households owning an electric vehicle.

With 700,000 homes expected to have solar panels by 2020, there is major potential for those households with both solar panels, electric vehicles and charging points to run their cars for free.

The average annual earnings of up to £900 generated by a standard-sized domestic solar panel installation can offset the average annual running costs of a Nissan Leaf.

In 2012, British Gas will launch a new electricity tariff which will allow electric car owners to pay as little as 1.59p per mile to power their car, saving themselves £1,200 a year compared to the cost of petrol.

Everyone on the tariff will have a smart meter installed which will give them access to flexible 'time of use' tariffs, put an end to estimated bills and give them access to smart appliances.

That looks like a cushy number!

DE11 BOY and EA57 END are going under the hammer... and yes, it's totally "cushy" and not a sketch from Only Fools And Horses!

Arguably, the perfect personalised registrations for crafty Cockney Derek "Del Boy" Trotter, the registrations will go under the gavel at the DVLA Personalised Registrations three-day auction commencing on Wednesday, September 28th.

With reserves set at £3,000 and £1,000 respectively, there is a huge amount of interest already surrounding the two registrations which are among the 1,500 being auctioned at Down Hall Country House Hotel, near Bishop's Stortford.

While they will understandably take the plaudits for being the most humorous plates being sold in this autumn's sale, the so-called "star" registration is undoubtedly 36 O complete with its £10,000 reserve.

Damian Lawson, DVLA Personalised Registrations' Marketing Manager, said: "These two plates are proving hugely popular with immense interest from potential buyers already surrounding them."

"DE11 BOY stems from our hugely successful 11-series of registrations released for sale last year and while it is unsuitable to sit on a Reliant three-wheeler, it would look terrific on any car registered on our roads from March 1st this year."

In total,

DVLA's forthcoming auction will comprise 1,500 registrations chosen to offer an eclectic mix to suit all tastes, styles and budgets including:

666 A (reserve - £3,000), ALF 44C (£400), A1 HAT (£1,000), BER 8A (£350), BO55 COE (£900), 10 CLS (£1,800), DE11 BOY (£3,000), DOG 70Y (£400), EA57 END (£1,000), GTR 55 (£400), LAW 80Y (£500), LAW 805S (£400), 811 LLY (£1,700), 1 MUC (£3,100), NAG 80Y (£400), 11 NSX (£450), 36 O (£10,000) ONE 80B (£450), OOH 848Y (£400), OUR 80B (£450), RAJ 88B (£400), RAG 70P (£500), RAV 11H (£400), SOL 41R (£350), UK51 NGH (£900), 1 WWF (£3,200).

HAWKER TAMES TIGERS

In-form Beaminster impress Annetts

RESULTS – September 17th
DEVON INTERMEDIATE CUP R1
Uplyme 3 Silvertown 4

UPLYPE manager Rob Coombe felt his side missed a golden opportunity to book a place in round two when they came up against Silvertown from the Devon & Exeter League Division Seven.

"They were a poor side but we had a real shocker, we were terrible" said Coombe.

The visitors took an early lead before an own goal restored parity. It was 2-2 at the interval with Adam Neale bagging the second equaliser.

Uplyme got their noses ahead soon after the restart when Ryan Prendeville swerved home the goal of the game from 20 yards.

But the Uplyme defence failed to deal with the aerial threat caused from a long throw-in and Silvertown were soon back level.

A carbon-copy goal late-on put paid to the hosts who will now be without trio Dan Prendeville, Lee Fifer and Jack Borgeat who are all university-bound.

Coronation Cup R1
Ilminster Res 3 Perry Street 2 (aet)

AN 89th minute equaliser from Perry Street player-manager Ian Hilton proved to be only a temporary reprieve as Ilminster, boosted by the inclusion of several first teamers, edged home.

Earlier Bradley Miles had given the hosts an early lead but Jay Bailey put the Mothers 2-1 up in extra-time only for the Blues the strike twice late on with goals from Jonny May and George Scutt, ironically coming via a blunder by Hilton.

South Petherton H Merriott Rovers W
SOUTH Petherton were handed free passage into the quarter-finals when Merriott Rovers failed to raise a side for the tie at Lightgate Lane.

W & M Chinnock 6 Combe Res 2 (aet)
WEST & Middle Chinnock came from 2-0 down to secure a quarter-final date with Crewkerne Town.

The Saints were two up at the break through Stuart Bicknell and Adam Barrett but Damon Hallatt reduced the arrears after the restart.

The turning point came five minutes from time when Chinnock keeper Matt Alford crowned a Man-of-the-match performance with fine save to keep out a Wayne Behan penalty.

Play switched to the opposite end and Nick Bond leveled in the 90th minute with a 25-yard scorcher.

It was all Chinnock in the extra half-hour and they stormed home with goals from Bond, skipper Damian Hart (pen) and Ollie Hutchings (2).

◆ Revised draw, quarter-finals; Beaminster v Winsham United, Farway United v South Petherton, Lyme Regis v Ilminster Town Res, Crewkerne Town v West & Middle Chinnock (ties to be played on October 22nd).

Premier
Farway United 1 Beaminster 3
BEAMINSTER impressed in a 3-1 win at Eastlee Park.

Rainbows' manager Sean Annetts liked what he saw, he said: "We were exceptionally good in the first-half and deserved to be four or five up". As it was Annetts had to be content with a solitary Dave Penn strike.

Striker Andy Mapstone doubled the lead after the restart and the win was secured when a Jamie McClements cross was turned into his own net by a Farway defender.

The only blot and an otherwise superb Beaminster showing was some late sloppy defending that presented Willand Town regular Dan Baily the chance to net a consolation.

Annetts gave his star man accolade to new skipper Ben Ward and was also impressed, and no doubt proud, of 16-year-old son Liam in a midfield holding role in front of the back four.

Lyme Regis 4 Crewkerne Town 2
JASON Hawker rolled back the years with two superb goals and two assists as Lyme Regis overcame a stubborn Crewkerne Town side that clearly looks destined for a top half finish on their return to the Premier Division.

For the second week in a row the Seasideers were ahead within a minute. Hawker found some space in the box and crossed for Joe Bond to hook home at the far post.

But the visitors responded well and were level six minutes later when young striker Ed Butcher, who looks to be a real talent, surged onto a through ball before slotting and angled low drive across Ashley Caddy and into the far corner.

Julien Simier missed a good chance to restore the led on the quarter-hour when he turned a Joel Gostling cross into the trees with the goal at his mercy.

But it wasn't long before the Davey Fort faithful had a second goal to cheer. Hawker miscued an effort goalwards but it fell to Bond who poked home for his 50th goal for Lyme.

The second-half was 10 minutes old when Gostling's low cross was stabbed onto the top of the crossbar by skipper Adam Caddy lurking at the near post.

But Crewkerne were handed a foothold in the game from an unlikely source on the hour when Lyme midfielder Steve Batey, rushing back to help out his defenders, diverted a cross into his own net.

Enter Hawker. With 20 minutes remaining the ex-Bridport striker picked up a loose ball 25-yards from goal before expertly chipping over Dale Wood in the Tigers' goal.

But there was better to follow ten minutes later when Hawker guided home a text-book header from all of 16-yards out to seal the win.

So it's two wins from two for the Seasideers who looked much more composed in the back line after last week's lackadaisical performance at Farway.

Division One
Ilminster Colts 1 Lyme Regis Res 3

LYME Regis Reserves continued their promising start to the new season as they recorded their second win in a week and are now one of only two teams in the division with a 100 percent record.

Opponents Ilminster third string were boosted by the inclusion of a couple of first team regulars including ex-pick-of-the-league defender Rob Stubbings.

The Seasideers, kicking down the Recreation ground slope, took the lead in the 24th minute when Rhys Paterson beat the offside trap before lobbing home.

The lead was doubled five minutes later when left-back Ally Rattenbury's diagonal pass found Jack Durrant and the teenage striker smashed home an angled shot.

Durrant rounded-off the scoring with his second on the hour after a neat move involving Nick Phillips and Aaron Marshall. Adam Male netted for Ilminster.

Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock selected left-midfielder Sam Bevis, skipper Luke Clifton and Durrant as his top men.

Norton Ath 0 Netherbury 6

NETHERBURY inflicted a biggest home defeat for two years on hosts Norton Athletic who appear destined for a tough season.

The Ambers led through two Tim Hussey goals at the break and powered to and impressive half-dozen with second-half goals from John Kingston, a 30-yard screamer, Phil Hussey (2) and another long-range cracker from Ryan Gay.

Netherbury Manager Andy Loudon selected midfielder Tom Franklin as his MoM.

Division Two
Dowlish & Donyatt 6 Pymore 2

TWO James Pitcher goals couldn't prevent Pymore from a 6-2 defeat at in-form Dowlish & Donyatt.

The stripes certainly have the Indian sign on the West Dorset side having won the corresponding fixture 7-0 last season!

Division Three

ON TARGET: Dave Penn scored the opener as Beaminster won 3-1 at bottom-of-the-table Farway United.

SCORCHER: Ryan Gay scored one of two long-range efforts as Netherbury crushed Norton Athletic 6-0.

DOUBLE: Jack Durrant scored twice as Lyme Regis Reserves moved second after 3-1 win at Ilminster Colts.

Drimpton 0 Shepton Beau Res 3
DRIMPTON fell behind to a second minute penalty as Brad Powers struck a hat-trick for visitors Shepton Reserves.

Waytown Hounds 7 Forton Res 1
A TOM Menaldino hat-trick fired Waytown Hounds to their first ever Division Three triumph.

Menaldino opened the scoring in the 20th minute and further goals from skipper Steve White, Gary Goodall and Menaldino again (penalty) put the Hounds in complete control at the turnaround.

Forton pulled one back after the resumption but a classic team passing movement ended with Leigh Hanford netting the pick of the goals.

Menaldino completed his triple before James Loveridge rounded-off the goal spree. Goodall was selected as star man.

Division Four
Barrington Res 11 Uplyme Res 1

'AN education' was Uplyme Reserves' joint manager Kieron Borgeat's assessment of his team's thrashing at Barrington Reserves. The Swallows trailed 4-0 at the interval and it was 6-0 before Jamie Jones bagged his fourth goal in three games.

Midfielder Ollie Borgeat had a fine game in the overrun Uplyme engine room. Jamie Park struck a hat-trick for the hosts who also benefited from two own goals.

Lyme Regis Bantams 3
Hawkchurch United Reserves 0
GOALS from Pete Peacock, Patryk Skibinski and Rhys Evans earned new Bantams manager Chris Simpson his first win as they cruised to a 3-0 victory over Hawchurch Reserves at the Woodroffe School.

After a goal less first 45 Peacock pounced on a through ball before netting his second goal in as many matches with a neat finish.

Five minutes later strike-partner Skibinski added a second and Evans round off the scoring near the end when he slotted home under the visiting keeper.

Simpson was impressed by Peacock and debutant centre-back Jimmy Harvey.

LYME REGIS BOWLS ROUND-UP

WITH PAUL MOFFITT

Impressive victory over Dorchester keeps Ladies team up

THE penultimate week of the outdoor season has been a busy one, not to mention a successful one for some of our bowlers.

Lesley Broom fought off allcomers, in the Coburn Cup, to clinch a 22-18 win over Sandy Smith. The Coburn Cup is open to all Dorset ladies who hold office within their Club. Lesley is currently the ladies treasurer.

Further success was achieved by a trio of ladies namely: Mareen Gillett, Lesley Broom and Kathy Clissold who were runners-up in the Benevolent triples. They were defeated by: Jenny Andrews, Chris Hann & June Steele, from Blandford, who took the title by one shot after playing an extra end.

Paul Pomeroy went to Poole Park to play in the final rounds of the County 2 Wood competition. After an easy win in the semi-final against Paul Beards 17-3, he was defeated in the final by his Middleton Cup skip, Wayne Garnett, from Dorchester 17-8.

Lyme 'A' played their last league game of the season away to Wellworthy 'A'. Not a good result, as they lost all 10 points on what was a very demanding green.

The Ladies, however, were in magnificent form in their last game of the season defeating a strong Dorchester side 8-2.

This was an important win as it assured them of their position in the top flight for next season.

The annual Gents v Ladies game took place on Saturday with the ladies fielding a full 7 rinks without their usual help from a few of the gents in drag!

The gents went on to win before everyone enjoyed a slap-up buffet provided by the members.

On the friendly front Lyme managed to come out top in three of the five games played, not least the return encounter against Budleigh Salterton which Lyme won to retain the trophy.

MOTOR SPORT

NEW CHALLENGE FOR DORSET HILLCLIMBERS

FOLLOWING 17 years of motorcycle meetings 2010 saw the local Woolbridge Motor Club promote the first speed hillclimbs for competitors on four wheels at he Manor Farm course at Charmouth.

Following the success of last year's meetings competitors return to the testing course, now in an extended format, to do battle in two action packed days of motorsport on Saturday and Sunday September 24th/25th, when regional championships of both the central southern and south west associations of motor clubs will be contested.

■ MANOR Farm hill record holder Mike Lee will be back with his OMS 2000M in an attempt to set another record on the revised course.

Lyme Regis driver, and recently crowned Wiscombe Park champion, Craig Moore will look to repeat his class victory of last year in his Ford Cortina when he faces the rapid Escort of Tim Porter in the Rally Car class.

In the Road-going Series Production Car category Lee Moore will face stern competition in his Citroen AX GT. The Axminster resident will have considerable competition including engine builder Steve Harris with his Vauxhall Corsa. Having taken a double victory recently at Wiscombe Park another Vauxhall driver, Stewart Lillington, will be looking to repeat the in the 1800cc to 2600cc division of the Modified Limited Production car class.

Two of the Road-going Specialist Production car classes will see Westfield drivers from Frampton near Dorchester in action. Hayley Thorne contests the 1400cc to 1800cc capacity split whilst Stewart Green goes for glory in the 1800 cc to 2600cc division.

A motoring spectacle is in store when battle is fought in the Modified Specialist Production Car class when Weymouth drivers, Geoff and Graham Blake face Mike Rudge in his 2.3 litre Westfield sports car. Last year the Cwmbran driver narrowly defeated Geoff Blake by a scant one tenth of a second.

The Sports Libre class has both quality and quantity with an entry of eleven drivers including Frampton duo Rodney Thorne and Colin Pook who have been forced to vacate the cockpit of both the Pilbeam MP58 single-seater and MP43 sports racing chassis due to a two litre engine capacity at Manor Farm. Accordingly Pook's Vision V87 has been prepared specifically for the Charmouth events.

The up to 2000cc racing car class sees Roger Cock and Andrew Forsyth share driving duties in the former's Pilbeam MP54 in a bid against the Ralt RT3 of Johns Burton and Opie.

Gates open for the practice runs at 10.00 each day with the event starting after a break for lunch.

Commentary will only be available for the competitive runs in the afternoon.

Admission: Adults £5.00 each. Accompanied children under 14 years of age FREE.

Car Parking FREE. Transfer to the competitor's enclosure FREE. Manor Farm Holiday Centre is situated on The Street in Charmouth. Follow signs to car parks and the venue.

Izzy busy with hat-trick

BEAMINSTER 2ND 5 WINCANTON 0

BEAMINSTER Ladies Hockey 2nd XI started the new season with a convincing win over Wincanton with Izzy Davies scoring a second-half hat-trick.

Beaminster took the lead when Danni Donovan had the easy task of converting after a goalmouth scramble, before Rachel Andrews bagged a second when she was on hand to convert the rebound after the visiting keeper had made a good save.

Davies scored the first of her goals soon after the restart when she flicked the ball over the keeper before the best move of the match ensured no way back for Wincanton.

Great lead-up play culminated in Donovan feeding Davies who buried her shot into the corner of the goal.

Ali White set up the fifth and final goal for Davies who once again converted powerfully.

This was a great all-round performance from Beaminster, with communication and passing being highlights of the game.

FOOTBALL

Wimborne 0 - 1 Bridport U10

BRIDPORT won this hard fought game of passing football with a goal just before half-time from Manny Cox wriggled his way through a crowded penalty box and squeezed his shot in at the near post.

Manager Dave Leader said: "We worked very hard and deserved our victory having created more chances. It was an excellent team performance but special mention to right back Finlay Davey whose distribution was superb.

Grange Athletic 1 - 6 Bridport U11

BRIDPORT started slowly against the wind and were caught off guard in the first five minutes when a Grange striker coolly slotted home, despite Bridport claims for offside.

However they equalised through James Cox who broke free to level the scores with a well taken goal, and took the lead on 20 minutes through striker Cameron Sayers who showed his speed and lightning reactions to beat the keeper.

Cox completed his hat trick with good left foot strikes in the 24th and 29th minute to give Bridport a 4-1 interval lead.

With Bridport in command Cox added his fourth as he rounded the right back before drilling the ball into the right top corner before Jaydon Brown added the sixth just before the hour.

Manager Greg Tuck's man of the match went to midfielder Teisen Chant. "He was superb today showing vision and composure and finding the target every time."

Shaftesbury 1 - 2 Bridport U13 Bees

BRIDPORT travelled to Shaftesbury, and came away with a very close 2-1 win. After going behind Bridport dug deep, created chances and played great football. Both goals were scored by George Bolt Chantler taking his tally to three already this season.

Manager Gus Parkman said: "The teams work rate was much improved. My MoM was Rory Bastian who worked tirelessly, whilst Ashton Ireland was very brave.

Wool & Winfrith 1 - 6 Bridport U9

BRIDPORT started brightly following last week's disappointing defeat to a strong Bere Regis team.

Good passing and movement ensured Bridport had the majority of possession against a physical Wool & Winfrith team who were confident following their 6-1 win in last week's league opener.

Two early well taken goals for Michael Bodycombe gave Bridport the deserved lead and some strong defending by Harry Burwood and Sam Ashton limited Wool's attempts on goal, giving the away team the advantage at the half-time interval.

Bodycombe completed his hat-trick soon after half-time and despite a number of substitutions Bridport retained their shape and created a number of chances.

Wool pulled a goal back against the run of play with a long range effort, before Alfie Crisp rounded the keeper to score and Flynn Weedon beat the keeper from the edge of the box for his first of the season.

Ethan Robertson then rounded-off an impressive 6-1 win following an unselfish lay off by Weedon.

Manager Joe Ashton named Burwood his Man-of-the-Match for an impressive performance at the back.

Under 10 Jets

Dorchester Dyn 2 - 4 Bridport U10 Jets

AFTER Last week's disappointing start to the season, Bridport were keen to improve but found a resolute Dorchester defence holding firm.

The hosts took the lead against the run of play following a mix-up in defence but were rewarded when some fine build up play left Ollie Hoole to fire in from a tight angle. However, Dorchester came back to score with a long range wind assisted shot to lead at the break.

Bridport started the second-half in the same way as the first, and equaliser from a corner, Josh Craven heading in at the near post.

Dorchester rallied but found an impressive Lewis Kennan in fine form in the centre of the visitors defence.

Bridport took the lead for the first time when some good work and a cross from Hoole found Craven to score from close range, before Marcus Burt rifled a shot into the top corner from the edge of the box following good work by Frankie Chant.

◆ Other results:

Under 12: Bridport Youth 1 Wimborne 1; Under 13W: Bridport Youth 2 Okeford United 2; Under 15: Bridport Youth 1 Wyke Victoria 0; Under 16: Ross garth Youth 3 Bridport Youth 0.

Wareham 4 Lyme Regis U12 2

GOALS from Cody Bowditch and Finlay Maclean couldn't save Lyme from a 4-2 defeat at Wareham in their opening match in the Dorset League.

Next up is Sunday's visit by Sturminster Newton.

Blandford 2 Lyme Regis U14 4

THE seaiders earned their first points of the new season thanks to goals from Declan Ellis, Kingsley Wellman, Richard Legg and Brad Rowe.

The team entertain Dorchester Gladiators on Sunday at the Davey Fort.

RUGBY

Swanage & Wareham Colts 24

Bridport Colts 38

BRIDPORT took full revenge for last season's surprise defeat to the young Swans with this six-try victory.

It was all the more impressive as they had only one substitute and could field no under-18s against a full 22 man squad of colts.

Bridport started with good pressure on their opponents and the opening score came when Will Haggerty tackled a clearing kicker and Mike Holden was on hand to intercept the loose pass and score under the sticks.

Although Swanage replied by getting the ball wide and outflanking the defence, it wasn't long before the blues were back in the lead.

Bob Lester-Card's kick pushed the home side back to 10m from their line and a textbook catch and drive resulted in Will Challis crossing the line.

The visitors extended their lead when Jasper Mowatt picked up from the base of the scrum and went outside the winger to score in the corner.

Once again Swans came back with a try of their own but Tom White took the blues into the break with a fine score from close range.

Swanage started the brightest after the interval, using their bench to bring on some fresh legs, and it paid off when they kicked over the top and won the chase to touch down. This only galvanised the blues and James Hansford scored following a good run through several tackles by Jason.

Although the home side cut the deficit with a run from the base of the scrum of their own, Mowatt had the last word for Bridport when he scored with a carbon copy of his earlier try. Lester-Card added four of the conversions to complete a handsome win.

ROY Gill, Liz Walker and Jill Harding's Yamaha virtually ended Triumph's chances of runners-up spot in the Evening League, a late 5.6 counts seeing the champion's elect power home 21-6.

AJS (Julia Baynes, Reg Dodds and Ken Enticott) are the new favourites for runners-up spot after coming back from 0-7 down to roar past Margaret Pestelle, Mike Long and Tony Bartlett's Harleys 17-10.

Di Loving, Sue and Brian Walsh's BSA, were also big winners, beating last placed Enfield 19-4, whilst Kevin Moyes, Martin Greir and David Cook's Honda led Gordon Lee, Keith Peraux and Brian Legg's Kawasaki 11-0, but were glad to see the finish line as Kawasaki pulled back to 11-13. Steve Hossack, Tony Symes and Paul Hallett's Norton finished 1.3 to beat Ducati 13-12.

Last placed Ferrari (Sue Caen, Bernard Winton and Hazel Lee) were the sensations in the Morning League; the prancing horses going 13-0 up against the lead Red Bulls before finally winning 23-5.

Hub money rolls in

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB - Captains Charity Day OVER 160 golfers took to the Lyme Regis course for the annual Captains Charity golf day writes Steve Percival.

This year Club Captain Ray Farrell has nominated a local charity, the Hub, as his charity.

Over the year the Hub has already received money from other events but this was to be the biggest contributor of the year. Played with teams of four in the Progressive Bowmaker format there were some excellent scores to match the near perfect conditions.

For the earlier part of the day the team of green keeping staff of David Everett were in the lead with a good score of 106. However, this score was soon overtaken. Eventual winners were the team of Tom Glover, Charlie Griffin, Matt Coburn and Steve Berry with the outstanding score of 124 points.

In second place were Mike Warren, Jane Southcombe, John Thomas and Tony Warwick with 112 Points. Third with 111 points were the father and son combination of Roger and George Seed partnered by Adrian Morgan and Jane Andrews.

In all the day amassed the excellent sum of £3500 for the Hub charity a sum of which the club can be justifiably proud.

WEST DORSET RUGBY REPORTS

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Weymouth well served by stand-ins

HAVING ventured into Somerset and Dorset on the first two league Saturdays of the season, it was now Devon's turn and I made my way to HONITON to take in their game against newly promoted VEOR.

CORSHAM 17pts, DORCHESTER 8pts

DORCHESTER have struggled in recent times to return from Corsham with anything and the side would have been very aware of that fact on Saturday last.

They were slow to settle and the home side, carrying well through their pack, had much the better of the early exchanges, and took the lead with a converted try, touched down near the posts by one of their centres.

They kicked a penalty subsequently and, with the visitors' lineup not functioning all that well, a comfortable home win looked on the cards at the end of the first quarter.

Dorchester finally settled however. They got a score back via the boot of Richard Bament and instituted a bout of pressure on the home line which culminated in Idris Croft getting over but being unable to ground the ball. Corsham survived and reasserted themselves, putting daylight between the sides with their second converted try, scored in the final minutes of the half.

The second half was a rather more even affair; and in fact, Dorchester might just have edged it. They made rather too many errors however and took a couple of wrong options and were never going to make up the deficit.

They did score the only points of the half, an unconverted try, touched down by Croft after he had been put clear by lock Makepeace, but could not do more, and ended the game with not even a losing bonus point to show for their labours.

There was better news for the Dorchester second side who put it across Oakmedians thirds by forty four points to seven. The thirds however lost narrowly 34-26 at their Wimborne counterparts.

SALISBURY 2nd, 7pts, WEYMOUTH 14pts

WEYMOUTH undertook the trip to Salisbury, surely one of their more difficult excursions of the season, in fear and trembling rather, being several players short of full complement. They returned satisfied with both the result and the manner in which their replacements had filled the breach.

Things did not start too well, with the home side monopolising both possession and territory throughout the first quarter and spending most of that period in Weymouth's territory.

The visitors defended manfully but, in the end, pressure told and Salisbury opened their account with a converted try, scored near the posts from close range.

This score, deserved though it was, seemed to settle Weymouth and they began to win some useable ball and to mount some pressure of their own by going through the phases.

They got an equalising score before the break, after full back Hughes had made a telling incursion into the line during a three quarter move, thus creating an overlap and putting winger Quick into space. He skated over and ran to the posts to give Barter a simple conversion kick that tied the scores at the halfway stage.

Weymouth certainly started the second period the brighter and were soon ahead after number eight Julian Quick had got over after good work by his colleagues in the pack. Barter added the extras to this one as well and, for the next few minutes fortunes fluctuated.

Salisbury were far from done however and they imposed considerable pressure on the Weymouth defence during the final few minutes' play.

Their efforts were without reward however, thanks in the main to the strength of the Weymouth eight as a whole, and open side George Carter in particular, who harassed the home playmaker without respite.

In the end Weymouth held on to claim a win that will most certainly satisfy them in view of their team raising difficulties.

Not such good news for the newly promoted Weymouth second side. They travelled to their Oakmedians counterparts badly weakened by first team calls and were beaten 36-5.

BRIDPORT 25pts WESTBURY 10pts

AS expected, Bridport proved too strong out wide for the visitors whose strength lies in their eight and, after a fairly even first-half, at the end of which the home side led 10-3, they stretched away to win comfortably.

In fact the win was perhaps a little more comfortable than the final score line suggests, for Westbury's efforts were rewarded with a converted try scored during the final play of the game.

Bridport's tries came from Ricky Stubbs, Wes Lewis, Rob Leins, Dave Smith and Ryan de la Hunty. All were unconverted, a statistic that leads one to bemoan the seeming lack of a place kicker in the ranks.

◆ THE Bridport second side, also playing at home, came out on top after an extremely high scoring encounter with opponents South Wilts.

The game ended with the score line standing at 47-41 and one would imagine that attacks certainly held sway over defences on both sides.

POOLE 7pts PUDDLETOWN 8pts

PUDDLETOWN would have ended the day pleased with this initial league win, but would have certainly been aware of their tendency to spurn obvious and clear cut scoring opportunities, particularly in the first-half when they won the territorial battle hands down, thanks in the main to the very real edge that their pack had established, both in the set scrums and the loose.

As it was the contest remained scoreless at the change round, with the home side surely feeling that they had "got away with it".

Thus encouraged, Poole took the initiative early in the second period, and held it for the first few minutes before the conceding of a succession of penalties proved to be their undoing.

The final award took place close to the home line and Spicer the Puddletown number eight, spurning the kick at goal, took the quick tap and drove over to give his side the lead. The try remained unconverted and matters were by no means resolved.

Poole continued to give as good as they got and, with 10 minutes left, their outside centre ran into a gap in the Puddletown defence and got over. The successful conversion kick gave Poole the lead.

At this stage the visitors were facing defeat but they rallied, went up field and won another penalty. Place kicker Udell then held his nerve and trusted his method to bisect the uprights with his place kick, to give his side the narrowest of wins and to prevent any cries of "if only" on the journey back.

PREVIEW

MORE junior Dorset & Wilts League teams are without league fixtures on Saturday next, and I notice that the creation of division four seems to have created a paucity of games for the clubs in the divisions above.

PUDDLETOWN have arranged a friendly against Swanage & Wareham thirds, but the second and third sides of both Dorchester and Weymouth, along with Bridport seconds, are left kicking their heels.

The league programme continues for the more senior clubs however, with DORCHESTER the only side at home. They take on TROWBRIDGE, a side who, after a reasonable start last season, fell away a little and ended the campaign in the mid table of the Southern Counties League(South).

In fact I watched their last game of the season, played at Bridport and, although they won it, thanks in the main to their accurate place kicker, they did not over impress.

Their kicker performed well however, punishing home infringements regularly. They are reputed to have a useful pack too, although it did not make its presence felt that day. I think that Dorchester will win this one if they can limit the opportunities of the Trowbridge kicker.

BRIDPORT face IVEL BARBARIANS, a side who, like them, are in a bit of a trough at the moment. The Yeovil side enjoyed a spell in the South West League Division One a few years ago but were relegated into Dorset & Wilts League One (South) some 18 months ago, and were unable to bounce straight back.

They have not started the current campaign all that promisingly either and Bridport certainly have an opportunity to notch an away win. They will most certainly have to kick some goals however.

WEYMOUTH travel to Gillingham to take on the NORTH DORSET second side and will certainly need to win this one if they are to entertain realistic hopes of a promotion place.

Hopefully they will not encounter the team raising problems of last weekend. If they are near full strength I think that they might just come back with a win.

FIXTURES September 24th:

THERE was a close finish to the Ladies Captain's Day Staphleford with three pairs all recording 34 points with Jennifer Kimberley and Elaine Rockingham winning on count-back from M Cooper and J Green and S Rand and D Pratt.

The weatherman was right with his prediction for Captain's day of heavy rain and a strong south westerly wind which whipped through the course. Fortunately the sun eventually came out and the Greensomes format was a great success.

The Interclub Team failed to reach the semi-final by finishing second in their division.

As predicted the final match away against Sherborne decided the final position with the hosts finally finishing 2 ½ points ahead of Weymouth in Division One by virtue of a 6-1 victory on their home course.

This was a much closer run thing that it appears, as Weymouth's last two players only lost on the 18th.

Friendly matches continue to be used to give new members experience of matchplay, and the results reflected this with home matches against Lyme Regis and Bridport and enjoyable fixtures away at Crane Valley, Sherborne and Yeovil.

■ WINDSWEPT BUT HAPPY: Winners Jennifer Kimberley (left) and Elaine Rockingham enjoy their success.

Broadwindsor clinch first ever title in tight finish

■ FROM THE FRONT: Skipper Ade Phillips who was the leading wicket taker.

BROADWINDSOR Cricket Club are celebrating their first ever Reader's Mid Wessex Cricket League Division 1 title in one of the most exciting finishes to a season ever.

With six of the seven clubs in with a chance of taking the title almost right until the finish, Broadwindsor completed their fixtures with a 117 run trouncing of Westlands that ended their title aspirations.

The West Dorset club had an anxious two week wait to find out if their efforts had been enough, as Cranmore could still be crowned champions if they could beat Westlands on the final day of the season. However they failed, losing by over a 100 runs to spark celebrations in the village.

Broadwindsor had finished the season strongly winning four of their last five fixtures, although after a narrow two run home win over Cranmore, they lost to visitors Wincanton the following week.

"I thought we had blown our chances then," said skipper Ade Phillips.

But the following week they gained revenge in the reverse fixture with a 77 run in Somerset before defeating Westlands to take another maximum 20 points.

Phillips added: "This year has been very competitive. We started the season by losing to Long Sutton who finished a long way bottom, and so, on their day everybody could beat everybody."

Phillips led the way on the field as the leading wicket taker with 22, and was well backed up by Jack Walklett (15), Ross Baker (13) and Murray Legg (11).

Joe Hawkins was the outstanding batsman averaging a magnificent 56.75, whilst Baker and Chris Park, averaging 31 apiece, gave great support.

Phillips stressed that the success was due to a fine team effort with all twenty players used making valuable contributions during the season.

Hyett stars as MDA win Middleton

DEAN Hyett starred with the bat as Beaminstor-based side MDA won the Broadwindsor Cricket Club's Middleton Hands Evening League Trophy on Finals Day.

Having starred with Nick Boundy (43 not out) in the semi-final against The Greyhound, Hyett followed up his 36 not out, with a fluent 49 against The Farmers in the final.

Last year's winners The Greyhound struggled against the bowling of Adam Herring (3-12) and despite 48 not out by Ross Baker, they could only muster 96-7 in their 16 overs, which MDA reached for the loss of three wickets.

Hyett helped by Steve Tucker (30) and Joe England (21) posted a formidable total of 159-7 in the final. The Farmers struggled to 111-5 in reply with Murray Legg bagging 2-16 to leave MDA winners by 48 runs.

Broadwindsor CC would like to thank all the teams who took part in another successful competition.

10-man Bridport fall to late double

Maggies bag back to back wins

HAMPTON & RICHMOND 0 DORCHESTER TOWN 2 - ATT: 260

GOALS in each half from Rico Wilson and Nick Crittenden secured back to back victories for Dorchester Town to move them up to a comfortable Blue Square South position.

The Magpies followed up their 3-2 victory over league leaders Welling United with a win over bottom club Hampton & Richmond three days later, and puts them within three points of the leading pack in 14th place.

Ryan Moss held his position in midfield following a superb display after replacing injured skipper Mark Jermyn against the Wings, whilst Crittenden started in place of Ben Dickenson who was on holiday.

Dorchester were rarely under pressure and took the lead on 16 minutes when Wilson scored with a spectacular scissor-kick. Crittenden sealed the points with a classic mazy runs and typical finish with 13 minutes left.

Assistant manager Phil Simkin said: "To be honest it was always going to be a banana skin after beating the top of the league on Saturday and then going to the bottom of the league, but the boys performed really well, passed the ball probably better than we did on Saturday, and in the end fully deserved the win."

On the goals he added: "Rico's was a good finish, a good volley, not an easy finish and he put it away very well, and Critts was vintage Critts to be honest. He's gone past two players as if they are not there and buried it in the corner of the net; real top quality."

Referring to Moss' performance in midfield he said: "Once he settled again he was a powerhouse in there for us. He enjoyed it there to be honest, did really well and combined very well with Ryan Dovell and Jamie Gleeson who were both absolutely outstanding. We just dominated the game because we won everything in midfield."

◆ DORCHESTER have signed Weymouth keeper Nick Jordan on a month's loan with a view to a permanent move.

The Magpies had given Bideford seven days notice of approach over Ollie Chenoweth, but their interest on this move appears to have cooled temporarily following this latest development.

Simkin said: "We've not dropped our interest in Ollie. It's just that this has come out of the blue. Nick Jordan is a very capable keeper and we want to see how he settles in for a month with us and then we will take it from there."

Bowles dismissal costly for Magpies

BASINGSTOKE 1 DORCHESTER TOWN 0 - ATT: 336

DESPITE playing for an hour with ten men after Gary Bowles was red carded at Basingstoke on Saturday, Dorchester are convinced they were denied a penalty in the final seconds that would have been just dessert for a battling display in difficult conditions.

Bowles was dismissed for an off the ball incident with David Pratt then conceded the only goal of the game when Tim Sills scored from Pratt's cut back from the bye line right on the stroke of half-time.

Playing against a strong wind in the first-half, Dorchester rarely failed to trouble Ashley Bayes in the home goal, but solid defending also limited the Basingstoke attack despite their advantage.

With the elements in their favour in the second-half more was seen of the Magpies attack especially with the introduction of Ben Dickenson, having returned from holiday, and Steve Devlin, back from suspension, on the hour.

However it was debut keeper Nick Jordan that almost made the headlines. The on-loan Weymouth gloveman deceived his opposite number with a huge kick that landed just short of the penalty area and looped over Bayes who could only look forlornly as the ball headed for goal. Unfortunately for the Magpies the ball struck the post and rebounded into a grateful Bayes' arms.

He redeemed himself soon after however when he denied Ryan Moss with a stunning save. Then in the last seconds two home defenders were caught napping by Dickenson as they shepherded a through ball back to the keeper. However as the striker sped past them they hauled him to the ground in what looked like a blatant penalty, but the referee ignored the visitors' pleas.

Portsmouth loanee Lewis Tallack who joined on loan last week was not considered for selection having just trained once with the squad two days earlier. The 18-year-old can play in midfield or at right-back.

Assistant manager Phil Simkin said: "Lewis trained with us on Thursday and looked very comfortable and fit as you would expect from a club such as Portsmouth but we didn't have much time to assess him to be honest, but I suspect he might play a part in Tuesday's match."

Wozza's late strike relieves pressure

CIRENCESTER TOWN 0 WEYMOUTH 1 - ATT: 121

A LATE strike from Warren Byerley, his fifth of the season, brought Weymouth victory over fellow strugglers Cirencester Town on Tuesday, and relieve the pressure on manager Brendon King.

The Terras had gone four games without victory which had seen them drop to second bottom in the Evo-Stik Southern Premier Division alongside their opponents.

A goalless draw seemed improbable before the game started with both sides only having kept a clean sheet once this season, but it seemed the most likely as the game entered the last three minutes.

However Byerley pounced following hesitancy between Tom Etheridge and his keeper Mike Green following Richard Marshall's ball over the top of the defence, to stroke the ball home at the near post for three valuable points.

In an even first-half, Weymouth started the stronger, but the Centurions then forced Tom Manley into a number of good saves to keep the Terras in the game.

Mitchell Bryant had a great chance to put the hosts ahead early in the second-half, but volleyed wide of the target, before Weymouth once again took the initiative and Green did well to save from Marshall's volley at the far post. The game looked to be heading for stalemate before Byerley struck to lift the Terras three places higher to eighteenth.

King said: "It was a decent performance and I think we deserved the win overall. The work rate and effort the boys put in was superb they got their just rewards. It's a fine line between success and defeat, and it was pleasing to keep a clean sheet. We are now also starting to create chances, something we weren't doing two or three weeks ago."

With the news that goalkeeper Nick Jordan was joining Dorchester Town on a month's loan with a view to a permanent move King said: "Nick has expressed his desire to play at the highest level; he wants to play in the Football League, and we don't want to stand in his way if that is what he wants.

"Neither do I want players at the club that don't want to play for us; we want fully committed players."

Tom Manley has played in the last two games since speculation of Jordan's unrest became knowledge. "Mans has had to wait patiently on the sidelines whilst Nick has been performing well, but he has been fantastic in the two matches he's played in and now got the number one shirt, and I will now look out for another keeper to keep him on his toes."

◆ MARK Peters has left the club after just two games, King citing the fact that the former St Alban's assistant-manager was unable to attend training sessions.

"Mark lives in Northampton, and we hoped that he would be able to attend training twice a week, but he is finding it difficult to do it on a regular basis."

Home draws for local clubs in FA Cup

BOTH Dorchester and Weymouth have been drawn at home in the second qualifying round of the FA Cup.

The Magpies will host Weston-super-Mare in a repeat of their Blue Square South clash which took place at The Avenue on Tuesday, whilst the Terras will entertain Evo-Stik Division One S&W league leaders Hungerford Town following their 3-1 replay victory over Taunton Town on Monday.

BRIDPORT 1 BITTON 3 - ATT: 130

A CONTROVERSIAL sending-off contributed to Bridport's third successive 3-1 defeat in a row when Sam Charles was given his marching orders along with Bitton's Jack Welling two minutes into the second-half.

Up to that point the Bees had looked good value for at least a point, but the loss of Charles blunted their attacking options and condemned them to their fourth Toolstation Western League Premier Division defeat of the season.

Bridport had battled back from a goal down to draw level before the break. But when Welling went through the back of the Bees' striker with a two-footed tackle, Charles reacted and, after a tussle on the ground that resulted in a melee of players from both sides involved, the referee Mark Lawrence sent-off the Bitton midfielder for the tackle, but then also dismissed Charles for retaliation which seemed a rather harsh decision.

However the Bees equalised on 28 minutes when Charles ghosted in to head home Dan Wises' free-kick from ten yards, and almost immediately Bitton were grateful to their gloveman Sam Alexander who brilliantly saved Tom Richardson's 12-yard volley; diving to his right to turn the ball away. Then Charles shrugged off his marker but his shot went just wide.

Bitton hit back with Filkins denying Rob Smart, before Russell Legg hit the post at the other end. Richardson and Smart were then booked for an altercation just before the break.

The game lost momentum after the double dismissal with neither side really threatening, and it looked to be drifting towards a share of the spoils when substitute Mark Fey capitalised on a moment's hesitation by Evans 20 minutes from the end. The defender decided to try and control a through ball instead of clearing his lines and Fey nipped in to lob the ball over Filkins.

With Bridport pushing forward looking for the equaliser, Bitton rubbed salt into the wounds with a third when Fey neatly collected a long ball out of defence before outpacing the Bees defence and crossing for Mark Salter to convert at the far post.

Crabb bows to superior Rec

HAMWORTHY REC 4 BRIDPORT RESERVES 0

BEES joint manager Steve Crabb was full of praise for their victors after the seeing his side go down 4-0 to Hamworthy Rec. The hosts have been Magna Dorset Premier League champions for the last two seasons.

"They are an excellent side and play the game the right way. They are a credit to the league. Being realistic anything we get from playing them is a bonus, and despite the score, we kept going and could have got a goal or two back at the end."

Rec took the lead through Ritchie Sands, but then the Bees had what looked a good goal by Roger Cummings ruled out for offside.

Unfortunately keeper Jamie Fry had to be replaced by Lee Cleal at the break following a knee injury sustained in a collision with a Rec forward.

Two minutes after the break Darren Lock almost scored with a header from a Sam Day free-kick before Mike Notley increased the hosts lead on 55 minutes. Andy Masson and substitute Jimmy Osborne then added further goals, but the Bees hit back and created two or three excellent chances before the finish.

Crabb added: "Despite being a fairly young side, the lads did not let their heads drop and kept going, and were rewarded for their effort by creating a couple of chances near the end."

Bridport 3rd's continued their good start to the season with a 7-1 thrashing of Balti House which keeps them in second place in Division Two with goals from Chris Symes (4), Mike Hailu (2) and James Bird.

Edwards Charity Cup 1st Semi-Final

BEAMINSTER 2 BRIDPORT 3RDS 0

BEAMINSTER booked their place in the Final of the Edwards Charity Cup with a 2-0 win in front of a healthy crowd at St Mary's on Thursday Evening (15th Sept).

The competition has been resurrected by the Bridport Football Partnership (BFP) after a gap of over 10 years. Beaminster started brightly and Andy Dennis the Bridport keeper was called into action early on when he tipped over a header from Beaminster's Ben Ward that was bound for the top corner.

The Beaminster front line of Murray Legg and Andrew Mapstone were a constant threat in the early stages but it was Legg who gave Beaminster the lead on 31 minutes from the penalty spot after the referee had spotted a push in the penalty area.

Bridport held sway early in the second-half and it was against the run of play when Ward secured Beaminster's final spot as he stole in ahead of the Bridport keeper and glanced a header into the empty net. Man of the Match was Andrew Mapstone (Beaminster). The second semi-final between Pymore and Charmouth is on Thursday, October 20th at St Mary's (7.30pm ko).

INSIDE: Perry Street League round-up

Triple triumph for Seasideers

IN the words of long since disbanded 80s group The Housemartins it was a case of "Happy Hour again" at the Davey Fort Club-house as all three Lyme Regis teams won on the same day for the first time in 18 months.

The first team made it two wins from two as they begin their quest for the Perry Street League Premier Division title.

Saturday's 4-2 victory over newly promoted Crewkerne Town was notable for two things; Joe Bond's 50th goal in Lyme colours and a pair of exquisitely crafted Jason Hawker goals.

For the second time in seven days the Seasideers were ahead within a minute and they held sway for much of the game thereafter.

Lyme entertain Merriott Rovers at the Fort on Saturday (2.30pm ko).

Lyme Reserves are one of only two teams with a 100 percent record in Division One after Jack Durrant scored twice in a 3-1 win at Ilminster Colts. The Resses have no game on Saturday.

The triple was completed by Lyme Bantams who cruised to a 3-0 win over Hawkchurch Reserves at The Woodroffe School.

New manager Chris Simpson and his side welcome league new boys Crewkerne Rangers Reserves at the weekend.

Uplyme had a horror show going down 4-3 to Silverton - but this was in the Devon Intermediate cup, a trophy The East Devon club have never really coveted.

The Swallows should be in the market for some league points on Saturday with the visit of decimated Hinton.

Uplyme Reserves also had a bad day and were slaughtered 11-1 at Barrington Reserves - the team will hope for better at bottom-of-the-table Ilminster A.

Meanwhile Charmouth return to action with a West Dorset derby at Pymore.
